STATE OF MICHIGAN IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHTENAW

CONRAD ROCKENHAUS,
Plaintiff,

Case No.: 26-737-DO

v.

Hon.: ~~Darlene A. O'Brien~~

ADRIENNE ROCKENHAUS
(a/k/a Adrienne Blair; Adrienne Hein),
Defendant.

COMPLAINT FOR DIVORCE

(No Minor Children of the Marriage)

NOW COMES Plaintiff, Conrad Rockenhaus, appearing in pro se, and for his Complaint for Divorce states as follows:

I. PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

1. Plaintiff Conrad Alan Rockenhaus is a resident of the County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, having resided in Washtenaw County for more than 180 days immediately preceding the filing of this Complaint. Plaintiff's current address is 1690 Brookfield Drive, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103.

2. Plaintiff is a United States Navy veteran, having first enlisted in December 1999 and served honorably on active duty across multiple periods of service, including through February 2015, over fifteen years of combined service, attaining the rank of Information Systems Technician First Class (IT1, E-6). Plaintiff served as a Transmission System Technician and was awarded, among other decorations, the Combat Action Ribbon, Kosovo Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal, and the Navy/Marine Corps Achievement Medal. Plaintiff received an Honorable Discharge, as reflected in his DD Form 214. Plaintiff is rated by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs as a 100% service-connected disabled veteran, and his VA Disability Compensation constitutes his sole source of monthly income. This context is directly relevant to the financial misconduct alleged herein, as Defendant, while acting as Plaintiff's Representative Payee and holding his Power of Attorney, diverted and withheld the federally protected disability benefits of a 100% disabled combat veteran.
3. Defendant Adrienne Rockenhaus (also known as Adrienne Blair and Adrienne Hein) is a resident of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan. Upon information and belief, Defendant's last known address is 26695 Ross Drive, Redford Township, Michigan 48239.
4. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to MCL 552.9 et seq. Venue is proper in Washtenaw County because Plaintiff has resided therein for the required statutory period.

II. THE MARRIAGE

5. Plaintiff and Defendant were lawfully married. The parties have cohabited as husband and wife and are, at the time of this filing, legally married.
6. There are no minor children born of or adopted during this marriage.
7. There are no minor children expected as a result of this marriage.

III. GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

8. There has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved, within the meaning of MCL 552.6.
9. Plaintiff brings this action solely to protect his legal rights and to obtain a lawful dissolution of the marriage. Plaintiff does not bring this action out of hostility, but recognizes that the parties' circumstances have made continuation of the marriage relationship untenable.
10. Plaintiff affirmatively requests that the Court order the parties to participate in counseling and/or mediation prior to or during the pendency of this proceeding, in order to facilitate a fair, amicable, and just resolution of all matters incident to this divorce. Plaintiff believes that professional guidance may assist in resolving property and financial disputes without unnecessary litigation.

IV. PATTERN OF RETALIATORY AND PREMEDITATED CONDUCT

11. Beginning during Plaintiff's federal incarceration, Defendant publicly operated what she called a 'Justice for Conrad' advocacy campaign on his behalf, maintaining multiple websites, a public YouTube channel, and active social media accounts including on X.com under the handle @adezero, purportedly to advocate for Plaintiff's civil rights and medical needs. In practice, however, Defendant used Plaintiff's story not to advance his interests but to draw attention to herself. Defendant positioned herself as the central figure in Plaintiff's legal struggles, casting herself as a target of the same government forces she claimed were persecuting Plaintiff, framing the narrative as though the government was coming after her, rather than focusing on Plaintiff's actual civil rights claims. Defendant leveraged Plaintiff's status as a 100% disabled incarcerated veteran to build a public media brand, generating social media followings and online content using Plaintiff's name, image, legal filings, and medical narrative as vehicles for her own public profile. Rather than seeking justice for Plaintiff, Defendant made Plaintiff's case about herself.

12. This public campaign created the appearance of a devoted and protective spouse while Defendant was simultaneously and secretly diverting Plaintiff's VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits into her personal checking account, filing her taxes as 'married filing separately,' and planning to render Plaintiff homeless upon his release. The 'Justice for Conrad' campaign served as a facade that obscured Defendant's financial misconduct from public scrutiny, from Plaintiff's legal team, and from the courts. Notably, Defendant's federal habeas petition filed as Plaintiff's 'Next Friend' was dismissed by the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan on December 18, 2025 for lack of standing, a judicial finding that Defendant was not acting in Plaintiff's interest, yet Defendant continued her public campaign and her financial diversion after that ruling. The exploitation of Plaintiff's incarceration and legal struggles for personal attention, while simultaneously withholding his sole source of income, constitutes a particularly egregious dimension of the financial and personal misconduct alleged herein.

13. Evidence of Defendant's premeditated financial separation from Plaintiff predates the PPO and the February 2026 escalation by several months. In or about October 2025, while simultaneously acting as Plaintiff's Representative Payee and collecting his VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits, Defendant filed her federal income taxes for both the 2023 and 2024 tax years using the status of 'married filing separately.' This filing status, chosen while Defendant was actively receiving Plaintiff's federal disability benefits as his designated Representative Payee and purported Next Friend, reflects a deliberate financial and legal distancing from Plaintiff on paper while continuing to access his income. Plaintiff has TRULINCS communications documenting Defendant's tax filing decisions. The fact that Defendant was quietly and systematically separating her financial and tax obligations from Plaintiff as early as October 2025, months before she claimed to be in sudden fear for her safety, is further evidence that the PPO and the subsequent campaign of financial misconduct were part of a premeditated plan rather than a spontaneous response to any threat posed by Plaintiff.

- 14. On February 9, 2026, Plaintiff's appellate attorney advised Defendant that she was no longer entitled to collect Plaintiff's VA Disability Compensation benefits. It was only upon receiving this notification, that her unauthorized access to Plaintiff's federal benefits was being revoked, that Defendant communicated to Plaintiff's appellate attorney that she would not pick Plaintiff up upon his release from federal custody on March 2, 2026; that she would not provide Plaintiff with any funds; that she intended to render Plaintiff homeless; and that she intended to file a Personal Protection Order against Plaintiff. The direct causal link between the notification regarding her loss of access to Plaintiff's VA benefits and her immediate retaliatory threats is significant and establishes that Defendant's subsequent conduct was financially motivated. Plaintiff's appellate attorney forwarded this communication to Plaintiff and advised him that he needed to make alternate arrangements and take steps to protect himself legally.
- 15. In response to Defendant's stated intentions, and in order to protect his legal interests, Plaintiff filed motions in his federal habeas corpus case to remove Defendant from her self-appointed role as 'Next Friend,' as Defendant had filed a habeas corpus petition purportedly on Plaintiff's behalf and had attempted to file an appeal in that matter, despite her conduct demonstrating that she was not acting in Plaintiff's interest. Plaintiff also filed a motion in his federal Bivens civil rights case to sever Defendant from that proceeding entirely.

16. Immediately after Plaintiff filed these protective motions, on February 12, 2026, Defendant sent a written communication directly to Plaintiff's appellate attorney explicitly stating that she was filing a divorce and PPO at 8:00 AM the following morning, and listing a series of allegations in threatening terms. That written communication constitutes a documented exhibit establishing that the PPO and the divorce filing were premeditated and scheduled, not a spontaneous response to fear. Defendant then filed her PPO against Plaintiff on February 20, 2026 and began making allegations of rape and sexual assault publicly and to Plaintiff's appellate attorney. Defendant also publicly amplified these same allegations across her social media platforms as part of the same retaliatory campaign. The sequence of events is unambiguous: Defendant's escalation, her abuse allegations, their public amplification on social media, and her PPO filing were all triggered directly by Plaintiff's lawful efforts to protect himself legally, and constitute a coordinated retaliatory pattern of conduct. The public nature of Defendant's social media campaign further demonstrates that the allegations were deployed for purposes of reputational harm and public pressure rather than genuine personal safety.

V. MARITAL PROPERTY AND ASSETS

17. The parties acquired certain marital property and assets during the course of the marriage. Plaintiff requests that the Court make a fair and equitable division of all marital property and debts pursuant to MCL 552.19 et seq. Plaintiff acknowledges that some marital debt may exist and does not dispute that there are financial obligations to be fairly accounted for in these proceedings. However, Plaintiff specifically disputes Defendant's claim, made in her PPO petition, that Plaintiff owes her in excess of $100,000.00, including an alleged loan from her personal trust. Plaintiff submits that this figure is grossly inflated, unsupported by documentation that has been made available to Plaintiff, and was asserted in the PPO petition without the supporting financial receipts Defendant herself acknowledged had not been attached. Plaintiff requests that the Court order a full and verified accounting of any alleged marital debts before any such claims are credited.

18. The financial misconduct described in this Section occurred during a period when Plaintiff was particularly vulnerable and wholly unable to monitor or protect his financial interests. From September 2025 through March 2, 2026, Plaintiff was in federal custody at FCI Milan, Michigan, including an extended period in the Special Housing Unit (SHU), a form of solitary confinement. During this time, Plaintiff suffered from a documented Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) and a seizure disorder, was medically isolated, had severely limited communication access, and was entirely dependent on Defendant as his Representative Payee and Power of Attorney holder to manage his financial affairs faithfully and lawfully. Defendant exploited this period of Plaintiff's maximum vulnerability to divert his federal benefits, file her taxes separately, and execute the premeditated plan described in Section IV, knowing that Plaintiff had no means to discover or prevent what she was doing.
19. Plaintiff specifically identifies the following property and funds to which he has a legal right and which are currently in the possession or control of Defendant, and requests the Court order their immediate return as part of these proceedings:
- (a) Veterans Disability Compensation funds wrongfully redirected by Defendant to her personal checking account without Plaintiff's authorization. The following payments, totaling $26,837.87, were diverted from Plaintiff and are subject to full return and accounting:

Payment Date	Amount	Notes
October 9, 2025	$4,673.44
October 31, 2025	$4,645.14
December 1, 2025	$4,567.30
December 31, 2025	$4,317.33
January 30, 2026	$4,317.33
February 27, 2026	$4,317.33	Received after Defendant obtained ex parte PPO against Plaintiff (Wayne County Case No. 26-102221-PP, entered February 20, 2026).
TOTAL	$26,837.87

- (b) One (1) Apple iPhone 16e;
- (c) One (1) Apple iPhone 15 Pro Max;
- (d) One (1) Apple Watch;
- (e) One (1) Apple iPad;
- (f) One (1) Apple Mac Mini;
- (g) Access and administrative control over Plaintiff's professional and legal email accounts, including but not limited to: conrad@rockenhaus.com and conrad@cannabytes.net;

(h) Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) benefits fraudulently redirected by Defendant to her personal checking account while acting as Plaintiff's court-appointed Representative Payee, in violation of federal law. As Representative Payee, Defendant was legally obligated under 42 U.S.C. § 405(j) to use Plaintiff's SSDI funds exclusively for Plaintiff's personal care and well-being. Instead, Defendant diverted the following payments totaling $12,489.00, to her own account without Plaintiff's knowledge or consent, and actively concealed this diversion by falsely representing to Plaintiff and to his appellate attorney that his SSDI payments had been suspended:

Payment Date	Amount	Notes
November 12, 2025	$3,742.00
December 10, 2025	$2,153.00
January 14, 2026	$2,198.00
February 11, 2026	$2,198.00
March 11, 2026	$2,198.00	Received after Defendant obtained PPO against Plaintiff, evicted him from the Redford Township residence, and rendered him homeless.
TOTAL	$12,489.00

Defendant's diversion of these SSDI funds constitutes fraud in her capacity as Representative Payee. Federal law (42 U.S.C. § 405(j) and 20 C.F.R. § 404.2041) requires that a Representative Payee use all benefits received solely for the beneficiary's use and benefit. Defendant violated this obligation by redirecting Plaintiff's SSDI funds to her personal account. This matter has been referred to the Social Security Administration Office of Inspector General. The diversion of Plaintiff's VA Disability Compensation funds is the subject of an active investigation by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Office of Inspector General (VA OIG Case No. 2026-18750). The Ann Arbor Police Department is conducting a parallel criminal investigation (AAPD Case No. 26-11892).

Compounding this fraud, Defendant affirmatively misrepresented to both Plaintiff and his appellate attorney that Plaintiff's SSDI payments had been suspended. This false statement was made while Defendant was actively receiving and retaining those same payments, preventing Plaintiff and his legal counsel from discovering the diversion, seeking return of the funds, or taking corrective action. This deliberate deception constitutes fraud upon Plaintiff and upon his legal representation.

Of particular note, the March 11, 2026 SSDI payment of $2,198.00 and the February 27, 2026 VA payment of $4,317.33 were both received by Defendant after she had already obtained the ex parte PPO, used that order to evict Plaintiff from the marital residence at 26695 Ross Drive, Redford Township, Michigan, and left Plaintiff homeless in Ann Arbor. Defendant's continued receipt and retention of Plaintiff's federal benefits, while simultaneously telling him they had been suspended, after rendering him homeless constitutes egregious financial misconduct and directly harmed Plaintiff's ability to secure housing, food, and access to the courts.

- (i) Immediate and full administrative control, including all registrar credentials, DNS settings, hosting access, and associated accounts, over the following internet domains, which are the premarital separate property of Plaintiff, acquired and registered prior to the marriage and never transferred or commingled as marital property:

Domain	Status
rockenhaus.com	Premarital separate property of Plaintiff
skyphusion.com	Premarital separate property of Plaintiff
greyponyit.com	Premarital separate property of Plaintiff

Defendant has no legal claim to these domains. Their continued retention by or under the control of Defendant constitutes wrongful interference with Plaintiff's separate premarital property and his ability to conduct his professional and litigation-related affairs. Plaintiff requests that this Court order the immediate transfer of all registrar and hosting credentials for these domains to Plaintiff's sole control.

(j) Full accounting of, and equitable relief regarding, Plaintiff's technical contributions to Cannabytes, LLC, a digital software and web services business. Defendant established the business relationships with the business's clients, including Humboldt CSI and Radogear.com, the latter of which the parties mutually concluded the business relationship with. Plaintiff served as the primary technical operator and systems maintainer of the business prior to his arrest in September 2025, providing the technical labor and infrastructure maintenance upon which the business's operations and client services depended. Defendant has since assumed exclusive control of the business, its digital infrastructure, domains, servers, and revenue, while Plaintiff has been locked out of all associated accounts and business assets. Furthermore, Plaintiff has reason to believe that Defendant introduced a third party, Sibin Grasic, as a partner in Cannabytes, LLC without Plaintiff's knowledge, consent, or proper involvement, notwithstanding Plaintiff's ownership interest in the business. If true, the introduction of a new partner into a business in which Plaintiff holds an ownership stake, without his authorization, may constitute a breach of fiduciary duty and could materially affect the value of Plaintiff's interest. Plaintiff requests that the Court order a full accounting of all Cannabytes, LLC revenue, expenses, assets, and any changes to the business's ownership or partnership structure from the inception of the business through the present, including any agreements entered into with Sibin Grasic or any other third party, and that the Court make an equitable determination of any compensation owed to Plaintiff for the value of his technical contributions and ownership interest in the business during the marriage.

20. Prior to and during the period of financial misconduct described herein, Defendant held a Power of Attorney granted to her by Plaintiff. Plaintiff revoked this Power of Attorney on January 25, 2026. On February 17, 2026, Plaintiff served Defendant with a certified written revocation of her authority to receive, manage, or direct any of his funds. Despite this revocation, Defendant continued to intercept and retain Plaintiff's VA Disability Compensation payment for March 2026. Significantly, the PPO against Plaintiff was filed on February 20, 2026, only three days after the certified revocation of her financial authority was served, further establishing that the PPO was filed in direct retaliation for the loss of her access to Plaintiff's funds rather than out of any genuine fear. Furthermore, in the PPO petition itself, Defendant falsely characterized Plaintiff's premarital domains, including rockenhaus.com, as her own business property, and sought court orders prohibiting Plaintiff from accessing his own digital infrastructure. This false characterization in a sworn court filing, combined with the retaliatory timing of the PPO filing, further evidences Defendant's pattern of using legal mechanisms to maintain financial control over Plaintiff's assets and to retaliate against his efforts to protect himself.

21. Veterans Disability Compensation benefits are the separate, protected property of the veteran under federal law (38 U.S.C. § 5301) and are not subject to division as marital property. Defendant redirected six VA disability payments totaling $26,837.87 directly to her personal checking account during the period of October 2025 through February 2026, while Plaintiff was incarcerated and unable to monitor or control his financial accounts. This diversion was made without Plaintiff's authorization and constitutes wrongful retention of federally protected veteran's benefits. Plaintiff requests that this Court order Defendant to return the full sum of $26,837.87 and to provide a complete accounting of how each payment was used.
22. Defendant fraudulently diverted five SSDI payments totaling $12,489.00 to her personal checking account between November 2025 and March 2026, while serving as Plaintiff's court-appointed Representative Payee and while falsely representing to Plaintiff and his appellate attorney that those payments had been suspended. This conduct violates 42 U.S.C. § 405(j) and constitutes Representative Payee fraud. This matter has been referred to the Social Security Administration Office of Inspector General. Additionally, the VA OIG is actively investigating under VA OIG Case No. 2026-18750, and the Ann Arbor Police Department is conducting a criminal investigation under AAPD Case No. 26-11892. The combined total of VA and SSDI funds wrongfully diverted by Defendant is $39,326.87. Plaintiff requests that this Court order Defendant to return all such funds in full and provide a sworn accounting of every payment received, retained, or spent on his behalf during the relevant period.

23. On the day of Plaintiff's release from federal custody, March 2, 2026, Defendant took deliberate and coordinated steps to prevent Plaintiff from recovering his personal property from the marital residence at 26695 Ross Drive, Redford Township, Michigan. Specifically, Defendant made false statements to the Redford Township Police Department, falsely claiming that Plaintiff had never lived at the marital residence, in an effort to cause police to deny Plaintiff access to his own home and property. Additionally, Defendant solicited a mutual acquaintance, known to the parties as Annie, to corroborate these false statements to law enforcement. Plaintiff was completely denied access to the marital residence as a direct result of Defendant's false representations, leaving Plaintiff unable to retrieve his personal belongings, identification documents, clothing, and other property on the day he was released from incarceration with no housing, no funds, and no possessions. A police report documenting this incident exists and is incorporated herein by reference. Plaintiff further has text messages and other evidence documenting Defendant's solicitation of false statements from Annie.

24. Further, while the Redford Township Police were present on March 2, 2026 to serve the PPO, Defendant also demanded that officers take Plaintiff to a hospital, claiming that he was suicidal. The responding officers independently assessed Plaintiff, determined that he was not suicidal, and declined to transport him to any hospital, directly contradicting Defendant's false claims. This on-scene determination by trained law enforcement officers further corroborates that Defendant's repeated claims of suicidal ideation, made to the Redford Township Police, to VA medical staff, and through Annie, were fabricated. Defendant's conduct in making false statements to law enforcement and soliciting a third party to do the same constitutes obstruction and fraud, and directly caused Plaintiff material harm at his most vulnerable moment.

25. On March 4 and 5, 2026, Annie made multiple attempts on Plaintiff's behalf to retrieve Plaintiff's personal property and secure funds for Plaintiff from Defendant. Defendant refused both requests on each occasion. In justifying her refusal to return Plaintiff's property or release any funds to him, Defendant told Annie that doing so would be "funding my rapist." This statement is significant for several reasons. First, it demonstrates that Defendant was using the rape allegation, which emerged on February 12, 2026, the same day Plaintiff filed protective legal motions, not as a genuine safety concern but as a financial justification to continue withholding Plaintiff's property and funds. Second, it establishes that Defendant's continued denial of Plaintiff's property and money was deliberate, ongoing, and unambiguous. Third, it further corroborates that Annie served as a direct witness to Defendant's conduct across multiple incidents, including the false statements to police on March 2, the false VA commitment attempt, and now the post-eviction property and financial denial on March 4 and 5.

26. Further evidence of Defendant's bad faith in obtaining and maintaining the PPO is provided by her own conduct following its issuance. In or about October 2025, while Plaintiff was in federal custody at FCI Milan, he sent Defendant a personal photograph of himself along with a handwritten note expressing love and affection, addressed to her at the marital residence. The PPO did not exist at that time, having not been filed until February 20, 2026. Rather than discard or retain the envelope, Defendant took the affirmative step of locating Plaintiff's current address and forwarding the envelope to him at the Delonis Center homeless shelter, 312 West Huron Street, Ann Arbor, Michigan. Plaintiff received this forwarded envelope on or about April 4, 2026. The envelope bears Plaintiff's inmate ID and the FCI Milan return address, with a forwarding label affixed by Defendant directing delivery to Plaintiff's shelter address. This conduct, actively seeking out Plaintiff's location and initiating mail contact with him while simultaneously maintaining a PPO that prohibits him from contacting her, is wholly inconsistent with any genuine fear of Plaintiff and constitutes further evidence that the PPO was obtained and maintained for retaliatory and financial purposes rather than for genuine protection. This evidence has been submitted as a supplemental filing in the PPO proceeding (Wayne County Case No. 26-102221-PP, filed April 6, 2026).

27. In a further effort to maintain fraudulent control over Plaintiff's VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits, Defendant engaged in a coordinated campaign to have Plaintiff falsely committed to a VA psychiatric facility, both prior to and on the day of his release from federal custody. Defendant made false reports to VA medical staff claiming that Plaintiff was suicidal. In support of these false reports, Defendant fabricated a claim that Plaintiff's own mother was telling Defendant that Plaintiff was sending her text messages expressing suicidal ideations, a claim that was knowingly and demonstrably false, as Plaintiff was incarcerated and did not have access to a phone or any means of sending such messages. Defendant then solicited the same mutual acquaintance, Annie, to appear at the VA and falsely corroborate to VA medical staff that Plaintiff was suicidal, and further instructed Annie to abandon Plaintiff at the VA facility and direct the VA staff to detain and deal with him.

28. Based in whole or in part on Defendant's false representations, the VA evaluated Plaintiff for psychiatric commitment. Plaintiff was evaluated and subsequently released, as the false claims were without merit. Plaintiff has VA records and text messages documenting Defendant's false reports and her coordination with Annie in furtherance of this scheme. This conduct, fabricating a mental health crisis to cause the involuntary psychiatric detention of a recently released incarcerated veteran, was designed to extend Defendant's uninterrupted access to Plaintiff's federal benefits and to prevent Plaintiff from discovering the financial fraud described herein. It constitutes, at minimum, filing false medical reports, fraud, and tortious interference with Plaintiff's liberty, and is part of the same continuous pattern of misconduct that is the subject of the active investigations by the VA OIG (Case No. 2026-18750) and the Ann Arbor Police Department (Case No. 26-11892).
29. Plaintiff reserves the right to supplement this list of property upon completion of discovery and full accounting of marital assets and liabilities.

VI. REQUEST FOR COUNSELING AND MEDIATION

30. Plaintiff genuinely desires a peaceful and equitable resolution of this matter. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honorable Court, pursuant to MCR 3.216 and MCL 552.513, refer the parties to domestic relations mediation to resolve all outstanding property and financial disputes.

31. Additionally, Plaintiff requests that the Court consider ordering the parties to engage in counseling, either jointly or individually, to assist in navigating the dissolution of this marriage in a manner that is fair, dignified, and minimally harmful to both parties.
32. Plaintiff recognizes that both parties have experienced significant stress and hardship, and believes that a structured, neutral mediation process offers the best path to a just resolution without the need for protracted adversarial litigation.

VII. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Conrad Rockenhaus respectfully prays that this Honorable Court grant the following relief:

- A. Enter a Judgment of Divorce dissolving the marriage of the parties;
- B. Make a fair and equitable division of all marital property and debts;
- C. Order the return to Plaintiff of all wrongfully redirected Veterans Disability Compensation funds ($26,837.87) and Social Security Disability Insurance funds ($12,489.00), for a combined total of $39,326.87; order Defendant to provide a full sworn accounting of all such funds; order the return of Plaintiff's personal computing devices (iPhone 16e, iPhone 15 Pro Max, Apple Watch, iPad, and Mac Mini); order restoration of access to Plaintiff's email accounts; order the immediate transfer of full administrative control of Plaintiff's premarital domains rockenhaus.com, skyphusion.com, and greyponyit.com; and order a full accounting of Cannabytes, LLC revenues, assets, and expenses and an equitable determination of Plaintiff's interest therein;

- D. Order the parties to participate in mediation pursuant to MCR 3.216 and/or counseling to facilitate an amicable resolution of all remaining disputes;
- E. Restore Plaintiff's rights to any marital assets and property to which he is entitled by law;
- F. Grant such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Conrad Rockenhaus
