

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT FOR THE COUNTY OF WAYNE
FAMILY DIVISION, DOMESTIC RELATIONS

ADRIENNE MARJORIE ROCKENHAUS, Plaintiff,

v.

CONRAD ALAN ROCKENHAUS, Defendant.

Case No. 26-104594-DO

Hon. Yvonna C. Abraham

DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR LEAVE TO SERVE EXCESS INTERROGATORIES

NOW COMES Defendant, Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, appearing pro se, and pursuant to MCR 2.309(A), respectfully moves this Honorable Court for leave to serve thirty-seven (37) interrogatories upon Plaintiff Adrienne Marjorie Rockenhaus, exceeding the twenty (20) interrogatory limit by seventeen (17). In support thereof, Defendant states as follows:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. MCR 2.309(A) limits each party to twenty interrogatories without leave of court, including all discrete subparts. Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories contains thirty-eight questions. Defendant respectfully requests leave to serve all thirty-eight interrogatories simultaneously, as each is necessary and non-duplicative given the extraordinary complexity of this case.
2. This is not a routine divorce action. Defendant has filed a Counterclaim documenting extensive financial misconduct spanning multiple federal and state proceedings, three active law enforcement investigations, unauthorized access to federally protected accounts, Representative Payee fraud, abuse of Power of Attorney, false statements to law enforcement, deliberate homelessness engineering, and wrongful retention of personal property and premarital assets. The scope of misconduct alleged, and documented, in this case is far beyond what twenty interrogatories can adequately address.

II. THE COMPLEXITY OF THIS CASE JUSTIFIES EXCESS INTERROGATORIES

3. This case involves the following distinct subject matter areas, each requiring independent inquiry:
 - a. Financial accounts and the unauthorized diversion of approximately $39,326.87 in federally protected VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits;
 - b. Plaintiff's unauthorized access to Defendant's va.gov account using his id.me credentials and redirection of his direct deposit;
 - c. Plaintiff's conduct as SSA-appointed Representative Payee and the resulting federal overpayment demand of $12,074.50;
 - d. Plaintiff's exercise of Power of Attorney during Defendant's incarceration, including every action taken under that authority;
 - e. Plaintiff's communications with the BOP, FCI Milan, Livingston County Jail, the DOJ, and all other third parties regarding Defendant during his incarceration;

- f. Plaintiff's extraction and weaponization of Defendant's private medical, psychiatric, and prescription records obtained through the Power of Attorney and related fiduciary relationships;
 - g. Plaintiff's pre-release planning for Defendant's March 2, 2026 release from federal custody, including coordination with Ann Helgren, VA social workers, and law enforcement;
 - h. Plaintiff's false statements to the Redford Township Police Department on March 2, 2026 regarding Defendant's residency and mental health status;
 - i. Cannabytes, LLC, Defendant's role as formally designated corporate officer, the company's finances, its personnel, and Plaintiff's wrongful exclusion of Defendant from business operations;
 - j. Plaintiff's wrongful retention of Defendant's premarital internet domains, including rockenhaus.com, skyphusion.com, and greyponyit.com;
 - k. The basis for and timing of the Personal Protection Order filed February 20, 2026, including its relationship to Defendant's filing of his Motion to Sever on February 18, 2026;
 - l. Wayne County venue, Plaintiff's residency history, and the judicial estoppel arising from Plaintiff's prior sworn statements that Defendant never resided at the Ross Drive address; and
 - m. Plaintiff's federal income tax filings for 2023 and 2024, made while simultaneously collecting Defendant's federal disability benefits.
- 4. Each of the thirty-six interrogatories addresses a distinct factual issue within one of these subject matter areas. None is duplicative. Twenty interrogatories cannot adequately address thirteen independent subject matter areas spanning financial fraud, federal investigations, Power of Attorney abuse, pre-release planning, false police statements, business misconduct, domain misappropriation, PPO retaliation, and venue fraud.
 - 5. This case involves three active law enforcement investigations: VA OIG Case No. 2026-18750, SSA OIG, and Ann Arbor Police Department Case No. 26-11892. It involves proceedings in four separate courts: this Court, the Washtenaw County Circuit Court (Case No. 26-737-DO), and two federal district court cases in the Eastern District of Michigan. The factual record is exceptionally complex and the additional interrogatories are necessary to develop it fully.
 - 6. Defendant is appearing pro se, is a 100% service-connected disabled veteran, and has no legal team to assist him in efficiently distilling complex multi-subject discovery into twenty questions. The additional interrogatories are not a product of excess, they are a product of necessity given the scope of Plaintiff's documented misconduct.
 - 7. Granting leave will not prejudice Plaintiff. Plaintiff is represented by experienced counsel at Aldrich Legal Services, PLLC. The thirty-six interrogatories are clearly organized by subject matter, each question is specific and non-duplicative, and Plaintiff has twenty-eight days to respond. The additional sixteen questions impose no undue burden given the breadth of conduct at issue.

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Defendant Conrad Alan Rockenhaus respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order:

- 8. Granting Defendant leave to serve thirty-seven (37) interrogatories upon Plaintiff in Defendant's First Set of Interrogatories;
- 9. Providing that Plaintiff shall respond to all thirty-six interrogatories within twenty-eight (28) days of service; and
- 10. Granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Conrad A. Rockenhaus
