

PPO PROPERTY SHOW CAUSE

Source PDF: PPO_Property_Show_Cause.pdf

Pages: 14

Case: 26-102221-PP, Wayne County Third Circuit Court (PPO docket)

Author: Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, Respondent (pro se)

Text extracted from embedded OCR layer of source PDF.

PAGE 1

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT
WAYNE COUNTY
ADRIENNE MARJORIE ROCKENHAUS, Petitioner,

v.

CONRAD ALAN ROCKENHAUS,
Respondent.

Case No. 26-102221-PP

Hon. PPO Docket Judge

RESPONDENT'S MOTION FOR ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE AND
FOR COURT-SUPERVISED ACCESS TO PERSONAL PROPERTY,
ELECTRONIC DEVICES, AND PERSONAL RECORDS

I. INTRODUCTION

NOW COMES Respondent, Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, appearing pro se, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for an Order to Show Cause directed at Petitioner Adrienne Marjorie Rockenhaus, and for a Court-supervised order permitting Respondent one-time access to the marital residence located at 26695 Ross Dr., Redford, Michigan 48239, for the purpose of retrieving his personal property, electronic devices, and personal records. In support thereof, Respondent states as follows:

This motion arises from Petitioner's deliberate and ongoing deprivation of Respondent's personal property through a combination of fraudulent misrepresentations to law enforcement and the weaponization of a Personal

PAGE 2

Protection Order (PPO) as a tool to effectuate an unlawful lockout. Since the PPO was served on Respondent on or about March 2, 2026, Petitioner has refused to allow Respondent any access to his personal belongings, electronic devices, and personal records that remain inside the marital residence. As a direct result of Petitioner's conduct, Respondent was rendered homeless following service of the PPO and remained without stable housing until March 29, 2026, when he obtained housing with the assistance of the Department of Veterans Affairs. Respondent continues to be irreparably harmed by the ongoing withholding of property indispensable to his daily life and to his pending litigation.

II. STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. Respondent Conrad Alan Rockenhaus and Petitioner Adrienne Marjorie Rockenhaus are husband and wife. The parties executed a residential lease agreement for the property located at 26695 Ross Dr., Redford, Michigan 48239, commencing September 1, 2025, through August 31, 2026 ("the marital residence"). Both Conrad Alan Rockenhaus and Adrienne Marjorie Rockenhaus are listed as residents on the lease. A true and correct copy of this lease is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

2. On or about March 2, 2026, officers of the Redford Township Police Department responded to the marital residence in connection with service of the PPO in this matter, as documented in Redford Township Police Case Report No. 260003379 ("the Redford Police Report"), a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

3. At the time of that police contact, Petitioner knowingly and falsely represented to the Redford Township Police that Respondent had never resided at 26695 Ross Dr., Redford, Michigan. This statement was demonstrably false, as both parties are named lessees on the lease agreement for that address.

PAGE 3

4. Petitioner further solicited a neighbor, Annie Helgren of Redford, Michigan, to corroborate her false statement to police by falsely claiming that Respondent had never lived at the residence. Ms. Helgren refused to make such a false statement to law enforcement.

5. As a direct result of Petitioner's misrepresentation to police, Respondent was prevented from retrieving any personal property from the marital residence on the date he was served with the PPO or at any time thereafter.

6. As a consequence of being locked out of the marital residence and denied access to his personal belongings and funds, Respondent was rendered homeless. On March 29, 2026, Respondent obtained stable housing at 1690 Brookfield Dr., Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103, with the direct assistance of the Department of Veterans Affairs.

7. Among the specific property Petitioner is withholding from Respondent are:

- a. One (1) iPhone 16e;
- b. One (1) iPhone 15 Pro Max;
- c. One (1) Apple Watch;
- d. One (1) iPad;
- e. One (1) Mac Mini;
- f. One (1) Network Attached Storage (NAS) device;
- g. Access to Respondent's primary email account, conrad@rockenhaus.com;
- h. Access to Respondent's professional email account, conrad@cannabytes.net;
- i. Personal clothing and household belongings; and
- j. Personal records including but not limited to financial, medical, Veterans Administration, Social Security Administration, and legal documents.

PAGE 4

8. The electronic devices described above contain the primary evidentiary records and correspondence necessary for Respondent to prosecute his pending civil rights action in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, Case No. 2:25-cv-12716. The continued deprivation of these devices constitutes ongoing obstruction of Respondent's access to the courts.

9. In addition to the physical devices, Petitioner controls access to Respondent's primary email account, conrad@rockenhaus.com, and his professional email account, conrad@cannabytes.net. These accounts contain substantial volumes of correspondence, files, and records that are essential to Respondent's personal affairs, professional activities, and pending litigation. Critically, these email accounts serve as the two-factor authentication (2FA) recovery mechanism for numerous financial and government accounts belonging to Respondent. Among the accounts dependent on this 2FA access are Respondent's Login.gov and ID.me accounts, which are the federally required identity verification portals used to access VA.gov, the Department of Veterans Affairs online portal, and CAC.mil, Respondent's military Common Access Card account. Petitioner's control over these email accounts therefore effectively locks Respondent out of his federal government accounts, preventing him from managing his veterans benefits, military records, and other government services. Respondent's inability to access these accounts compounds the harm caused by the withholding of his physical devices and records.

10. Compounding the foregoing, Petitioner has assumed unauthorized control over a T-Mobile cellular telephone number, (248) 843-5170, which remains registered in Respondent's name. Petitioner has attempted to purge Respondent entirely from the account and ceased making payments on the account as of February 2026, placing the account in jeopardy of suspension or termination. This telephone number is linked as the two-factor authentication (2FA) destination for a significant number of Respondent's financial accounts. So long as Petitioner retains unauthorized control over this number, Respondent is unable to receive authentication codes necessary to access his own financial accounts, reset credentials, or conduct routine financial transactions. Respondent requests that this Court order the immediate return of control of the (248) 843-5170 T-Mobile account to Respondent as the account holder of record.

PAGE 5

11. Petitioner is further withholding records necessary for Respondent to resolve active issues with his pay and benefits through both the Department of Veterans Affairs and the Social Security Administration. The deprivation of these records is causing Respondent ongoing financial harm and preventing him from correcting benefit discrepancies that directly affect his income and livelihood.

12. Additionally, Petitioner is withholding records required to enroll her in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS), the federal database through which military dependents establish eligibility for benefits. As Respondent's spouse, Petitioner is entitled to DEERS enrollment, but Respondent cannot complete that process without the records she is currently withholding from him. The urgency of this obligation was further underscored on April 6, 2026, when Respondent received a letter from the Department of the Navy advising him that, due to his potential eligibility for recall to active duty, he is required to keep his DEERS information current. Petitioner's ongoing withholding of the necessary records is therefore directly interfering with Respondent's compliance with a federal military obligation.

13. Despite demand, Petitioner has refused to return any of Respondent's property, restore access to his email accounts, relinquish control of his T-Mobile telephone number, or permit any access to the marital residence for the purpose of retrieval.

PAGE 6

III. LEGAL AUTHORITY

A PPO issued under MCL 600.2950 may prohibit a respondent from entering premises where a petitioner lives; it does not, however, extinguish a respondent's property rights in marital or personal property located at those premises. Michigan courts routinely enter orders permitting supervised retrieval of personal property even where a no-contact or no-entry order is in place, recognizing that a PPO cannot be used as an instrument to permanently deprive a co-resident or spouse of their own property.

Under MCR 3.706, this Court has continuing jurisdiction over all matters relating to the PPO, including enforcement, modification, and relief ancillary to the order. A Motion for Order to Show Cause is the proper vehicle to bring before the Court conduct that is in violation of, or that exploits, a court order. See MCR 3.606.

Furthermore, Petitioner's false statement to the Redford Police, that Respondent never resided at the marital residence, constitutes a misrepresentation that was used to facilitate an unlawful deprivation of Respondent's property interests in his own home. Courts have the inherent authority to prevent a party from benefiting from fraud perpetrated in connection with litigation. See Sylvania Savings Bank v. Turner, 372 Mich 2 (1963).

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Respondent respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order:

1. Directing Petitioner Adrienne Marjorie Rockenhaus to show cause, if any she has, why she should not be ordered to provide Respondent supervised access to the marital residence at 26695 Ross Dr., Redford, Michigan 48239;

PAGE 7

2. Ordering Petitioner to allow Respondent one-time access to the marital residence, supervised by a Redford Township Police officer (civil standby), for the purpose of retrieving his personal belongings, clothing, documents, and records;
3. Ordering Petitioner to immediately return the following specific electronic devices to Respondent: (a) iPhone 16e; (b) iPhone 15 Pro Max; (c) Apple Watch; (d) iPad; (e) Mac Mini; and (f) Network Attached Storage (NAS) device;
4. Ordering Petitioner to immediately restore Respondent's access to his primary email account, conrad@rockenhaus.com, and his professional email account, conrad@cannabytes.net, including full administrative control over both accounts;
5. Ordering Petitioner to immediately relinquish all control over the T-Mobile cellular telephone account for number (248) 843-5170, which is registered in Respondent's name, and to take no further action to modify, transfer, or terminate said account;
6. Ordering Petitioner to immediately return all personal records belonging to Respondent, including financial, medical, Veterans Administration, Social Security Administration, and legal records;
7. Finding that Petitioner's false statements to the Redford Township Police on or about March 2, 2026, concerning Respondent's residency at 26695 Ross Dr., constituted a misrepresentation to law enforcement for the purpose of effectuating an unlawful lockout, and that such conduct warrants appropriate sanction by this Court;
8. Setting this matter for an expedited hearing; and

PAGE 8

9. Granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Conrad Alan Rockenhaus

Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, Respondent, Pro Se

1690 Brookfield Dr.

Ann Arbor, MI 48103

(254) 340-7910

crockenhaus@icloud.com

Dated: April 9, 2026

PAGE 9

EXHIBIT A

Residential Lease Agreement, 26695 Ross Dr., Redford, MI 48239

PAGE 10

PAGE 11

EXHIBIT B

Redford Township Police Case Report No. 260003379, March 2, 2026

PAGE 12

PAGE 13

PAGE 14
