

COVER

EXHIBIT A

Social Security Administration Demand Letter (Redacted)

dated March 19, 2026

Issuer: Social Security Administration, Office of Central Operations, 6401 Security Boulevard, Baltimore, Maryland 21235-6401 Date of Letter: March 19, 2026 SSA Notice Tracking (BNC #): 26T2386A75280-HA Addressed to: ADRIENNE ROCKENHAUS FOR CONRAD A ROCKENHAUS Subject: Determination that $12,074.50 was overpaid to Counter-Defendant Adrienne Rockenhaus, in her capacity as SSA-appointed Representative Payee for Defendant Conrad A. Rockenhaus, during his incarceration

This Exhibit is the written demand from the Social Security Administration determining that $12,074.50 in Title II Disability Insurance benefits was overpaid to Counter-Defendant Adrienne Marjorie Rockenhaus as SSA-appointed Representative Payee for Defendant Conrad Alan Rockenhaus while Defendant was confined in a correctional institution for more than thirty days, and demanding refund of the overpaid sum. The letter states in pertinent part that benefits could not be paid beginning October 2025 because Defendant "is imprisoned for the conviction of a crime," and that Defendant "received $12,074.50 too much in benefits because of his criminal conviction and confinement in a correctional institution for more than 30 days." The letter further sets forth the rights of the addressee to request reconsideration or waiver of the overpayment determination under SSA administrative process. Personally identifying information has been redacted from this copy in accordance with this Court's prior orders on PII. The SSA notice tracking number (BNC#) is the agency's internal mail-piece identifier and is not personally identifying information. This Exhibit is offered as documentary support for the factual averments in Section III of the Affidavit. Monetary recovery of the $12,074.50 SSDI overpayment is not sought in the contemporaneously filed Motion for Default Judgment and is reserved for the proper forum (SSA's administrative process and any federal action that may follow), as set forth in §VII.A of the Motion. The Exhibit informs the deemed-admitted record on breach of fiduciary duty under 42 U.S.C. § 405(j), the discretionary considerations under Counterclaim Count B (accounting), and the weighting and sanctions considerations under Counts G and H.

ROCKENHAUS v. ROCKENHAUS

Case No. 26-104594-DO

Hon. Nicole N. Goodson

Third Judicial Circuit, Wayne County, Michigan