

STATE OF MICHIGAN
THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT COURT, WAYNE COUNTY

ADRIENNE MARJORIE ROCKENHAUS, Petitioner,

v.

CONRAD ALAN ROCKENHAUS, Respondent.

Case No. 26-102221-PP

Hon. PPO Docket Judge

Hearing: April 29, 2026 at 11:30 AM (Zoom)

EXHIBIT 10

December 22, 2025 Letter, Petitioner to Respondent

Description:

Voice-to-text personal letter from Petitioner Adrienne Rockenhaus to Respondent Conrad Rockenhaus, dated December 22, 2025, approximately sixty (60) days before the ex parte PPO filing of February 20, 2026. Composed via voice-to-text, as Petitioner explains in the letter, due to hand pain. Mailed to Respondent during his federal incarceration at FCI Milan. The letter is uniformly affectionate and contains no grievance content.

Relevance:

This contemporaneous personal communication from Petitioner to Respondent, dated 60 days before the PPO filing, is directly inconsistent with the fear narrative the petition advances. Petitioner explicitly disclaims grievance (“we don’t think any of this is your fault”), expresses present-tense affection (“I love you so much, Conrad”; “You mean everything to me”), describes shared domestic life (“Toro and Autumn seem to know, they curl up in your spots and look at me like they’re waiting for you too”), and discusses specific future plans together with Respondent (“dancing, walks with Toro or just sitting watching Maury with Autumn purring between us”). The letter is offered as a contemporaneous statement of Petitioner’s then-existing state of mind under MRE 803(3).

In Support of Respondent’s Motion to Terminate Personal Protection Order*

Conrad,

I hope you're holding up okay in there. I'm writing this using voice-to-text because my hands have been killing me lately, and I know you like it when I handwrite stuff, but I just had to get this out to you right away. I got a text from your mom with the letter she got from you, and I haven't heard anything from you yet, you obviously haven't been getting stuff from me, so I wanted to send this immediately

I really hope it gets to you before Christmas so you can read it and know how much I'm thinking of you

I love you so much, Conrad. I think about you every single minute of every day, and you're loved every minute by me, Toro, and Autumn.

Every night when I go to bed, I imagine you right there next to me, and it makes me smile even though I miss you like crazy.

Toro and Autumn seem to know, they curl up in your spots and look at me like they're waiting for you too. I talk to them about you all the time, telling them stories about our good times, and it helps me feel closer to you.

I miss your laugh, your hugs, the way you make everything feel better just by being around. You're the best part of my life, and I can't stop thinking about all the little things we'll do when you're back, like dancing, walks with Toro or just sitting watching Maury with Autumn purring between us.

You mean everything to me, and I'm holding on to that love every second until you're home safe.

We can't wait for the moment you get home. We're not mad at you at all, we don't think any of this is your fault. We only think about you with love and care, and how much we want you back here with us. We can't wait till you're home.

Everyone is doing as well as we can, and I hope you are too.

Merry Christmas, Conrad.

All my love,

Adrienne
