AFFIDAVIT AND MOTION

C 1. I am the protected party in a valid personal/foreign protection order dated February 20, 2026 and issued by the 3rd JUDICIAL CIRCUIT Court, case number 26-102221-PP.
Attached is a copy of that order and either proof of service on or notification to the respondent of that order.

D 2. The respondent has violated the order by doing the following:
Explain what has happened and include dates, times, and events (attach any supporting documents, such as a complaint filed with the police.)
1. Premeditated and Willful Violation (The Driveway Drop-Off) The Respondent's disregard for this Court's Ex Parte Personal Protection Order (Case No. 26-102221-PP) is premeditated and willful. On February 23, 2026, prior to the Respondent's release from federal custody, I formally served his federal defense attorney, Kaycee Berente, with "Actual Notice" of the order, explicitly instructing his legal counsel that he was legally barred from my residence, vicinity, and digital infrastructure. Despite his attorney possessing undeniable knowledge of this state court order, the Respondent still orchestrated his physical transportation directly to my driveway upon his release from prison, where local Redford police had to formally read him the order to force him off the property. He knew the PPO existed before he arrived; he breached the physical perimeter anyway, and he is now attempting to breach the digital perimeter.
2. Third-Party Proxy Harassment & Stalking After failing to breach my physical property, the (continued on next page)

3. I request the court to order the respondent to appear at a specified time to answer a contempt charge or to issue a bench warrant for the arrest of the respondent.

4. This affidavit is made on my personal knowledge and, if sworn as a witness, I can testify competently to the facts in this affidavit.

 The respondent has violated the order by doing the following:
- Respondent willfully violated the no-contact and stalking provisions of the PPO by utilizing my nephew, Robby, as a third-party proxy. The Respondent used a burner email address (conradrockenhaus2@gmail.com) to explicitly ask my nephew to act as a conduit, stating, "If you could relay this or forward my email to her," and "I have no desire to see or contact Adrienne again unless it's through a 3rd party." This Court's order explicitly prohibits the Respondent from stalking, which includes sending mail or other communications to me 4-6. Using a family member to purposefully bypass a strict legal no-contact boundary constitutes an intentional continuation of harassment and indirect contact.
3. Financial Coercion and Violation of the Financial Injunction Within that exact same proxy email to my nephew, the Respondent attempted to negotiate the redirection of his federal VA funds and our joint marital assets, explicitly discussing his "March funds" and offering a $2,000 per month allowance. This is a direct violation of the Court's financial injunction, which prohibits the Respondent from altering, changing, or redirecting direct deposit designations for federal VA benefits, survival funds, or joint banking accounts. I am strictly abiding by the Court's order and insisting that the division of our marital assets and personal property be handled legally through our impending divorce proceedings. To facilitate this legally, I emailed the VA and his federal attorney on February 26, 2026, requesting his physical address so my counsel and I could properly mail him financial documents. Instead of using lawful channels, the Respondent is utilizing my family members to conduct back-alley financial extortion.
4. Established Pattern of Proxy Harassment The Respondent's attempt to use my nephew as a conduit is not an isolated incident; it is part of a calculated, ongoing campaign of proxy harassment designed to bypass this Court's boundaries. Previously, the Respondent utilized the criminal network of an indicted associate to bombard my phone through a proxy named Jerome Sallad when I set safety boundaries. More recently, the Respondent manipulated a local acquaintance ("Annie") into acting as his surrogate. She came directly to my home, pressured me to violate this Court's financial injunction, and demanded I hand over untraceable cash to fund the Respondent's demands. When I refused to violate the PPO and completely severed contact with that compromised third party, the Respondent immediately pivoted to targeting my nephew to execute the exact same financial coercion. This establishes a clear, systemic pattern of the Respondent hunting for third-party vulnerabilities to terrorize me and breach the Court's order.

I do not generate reports. I do know that the PPO was served verbally to your ex, thus if he is violating that you should contact the police as I am not an officer.
