

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT FOR THE COUNTY OF WAYNE
FAMILY DIVISION, DOMESTIC RELATIONS

ADRIENNE MARJORIE ROCKENHAUS, Plaintiff,

v.

CONRAD ALAN ROCKENHAUS,
Defendant.

Case No. 26-104594-DO

Hon. Nicole N. Goodson

DEFENDANT'S SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO PART ONE OF OMNIBUS THREE-LAYER MOTION (EVIDENCE PRESERVATION)

NOW COMES Defendant, Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, appearing pro se, and pursuant to MCR 2.310, MCR 2.313, and the Court's inherent authority to preserve the evidentiary record in pending litigation, respectfully submits this Second Supplement to Part One of his Omnibus Three-Layer Motion (the "Omnibus Motion"), filed in this matter on April 16, 2026.

This Second Supplement does not seek new relief beyond the framework already requested in the Omnibus Motion. It expands the categories of evidence subject to the preservation order requested in Part One to include specific physical-residence, landlord-tenant, public-narrative-amplification, and email-harassment categories that have become evidentiarily significant since May 6, 2026. In support thereof, Defendant states as follows:

I. RELATIONSHIP TO PRIOR FILINGS

1. The Omnibus Motion is incorporated by reference. Part One of the Omnibus Motion identifies eight categories of evidence (Categories A through H) for which preservation is sought under MCR 2.310, MCR 2.313, and the spoliation framework set forth in Teel v. Meredith, 284 Mich App 412 (2009).
2. Defendant's First Supplement to Part One, filed May 6, 2026, added Categories I through N to the preservation request, addressing the compromise and operation of Defendant's Apple ID, email, and Facebook accounts; the operation of an additional Facebook account configured to amplify content adverse to Defendant; coordinated comment-lockout following amplification; and AirTag location tracking of Defendant's wallet.
3. This Second Supplement adds Categories O through T, addressing three further developments since May 6, 2026: (a) Plaintiff's vacation of her last known principal residence on May 9, 2026, including the operation of a personal pickup truck and the involvement of an unidentified third party in the vacation activity; (b) the continuation of the public-narrative campaign first documented in Defendant's Second Supplemental Motion in Wayne County Case No. 26-102221-PP (filed May 6, 2026), which has now generated third-party speculation on the X social media platform regarding Defendant's status and whereabouts; and (c) two harassing emails transmitted to a material witness in this proceeding on the same day as Plaintiff's vacation of the residence, from a Gmail account previously unknown to Defendant, advancing the same dead-man's-switch narrative seeded in the May 4, 2026 Facebook post.

4. The legal authority, the evidentiary foundation, and the relief framework remain as set forth in the Omnibus Motion and the First Supplement and are not restated here.
5. Defendant designates this filing as the Fourth Omnibus filing in this matter and the Third Supplement to the Omnibus Three-Layer Motion: original (filed April 16, 2026); Supplement to Part Three concerning rockenhaus.com (filed May 5, 2026); First Supplement to Part One adding Categories I through N (filed May 6, 2026); and the present Second Supplement to Part One adding Categories O through T.

II. SUPPLEMENTAL FACTUAL BASIS

6. Since the filing of the First Supplement to Part One on May 6, 2026, the following developments have made specific additional categories of evidence preservation immediately necessary.
7. Plaintiff's vacation of last known principal residence. Plaintiff's last known principal residence is 26695 Ross Drive, Redford, Michigan 48239 (the "Ross Dr Residence"). The Ross Dr Residence is the subject of a residential lease executed by Plaintiff and EJK Group, the landlord, with Defendant identified as a co-lessee. A copy of that lease is part of the existing record before this Court and the related PPO Court in Case No. 26-102221-PP. On Saturday evening, May 9, 2026, beginning at or before approximately 9:30 PM, Plaintiff vacated the Ross Dr Residence and removed personal property from the premises. The vacation was directly observed by Ann Helgren ("Witness Helgren"), a witness in this proceeding, and is corroborated by Pamela Jordan, a witness in this proceeding who maintains line-of-sight to the Ross Dr Residence from her own neighboring residence. Witness Helgren documented the vacation activity contemporaneously through photographs and video and transmitted that documentation to Defendant during the evening of May 9, 2026 (Exhibits 1 and 3). The video transmitted by Witness Helgren bears an embedded creation timestamp of May 9, 2026 at 9:31:37 PM Eastern Daylight Time and was captured on Witness Helgren's iPhone 14 device.
8. Vehicle and individual observed conducting the moving activity. During the evening of May 9, 2026, a white Ford pickup truck bearing Michigan license plate 7RBK87 was parked at or near the Ross Dr Residence. The vehicle bears the manufacturer marking "F-250 Super Duty," as depicted in photographs taken by Witness Helgren on May 9, 2026 and transmitted contemporaneously to Defendant (Exhibit 2). A single male individual, who is the operator of the vehicle bearing Michigan license plate 7RBK87, was directly observed by Witness Helgren entering and exiting the Ross Dr Residence and removing personal property from the residence, including without limitation a laundry basket containing belongings, boxes, and additional items (Exhibit 3). Witness Helgren did not recognize the male individual. Plaintiff has not disclosed to Defendant the identity of the male individual or the registered owner of the vehicle bearing Michigan license plate 7RBK87. The identity of that individual, the identity of the registered owner of that vehicle, and the destination or destinations to which Plaintiff's removed personal property was transported are facts material to the categories of evidence preservation requested in this Second Supplement.
9. Plaintiff's stated intent regarding the departure. On information and belief, Plaintiff communicated to her landlord, Eric, of EJK Group, before or contemporaneous with her departure on May 9, 2026, that she was leaving the Ross Dr Residence with no fixed destination and no fixed return date. The landlord communicated the substance of those statements to one or more of the witnesses identified in paragraph 7. Defendant reserves the right to seek issuance of a subpoena to the landlord and to EJK Group to authenticate the landlord-tenant communications and the related lease-termination communications, should such authentication become necessary at a contested stage of these proceedings.

10. Risk to evidence located at the Ross Dr Residence at time of vacation. The Ross Dr Residence has been, throughout the pendency of this action, the location of evidence within the categories identified in Part One of the Omnibus Motion and Categories I through N of the First Supplement, including without limitation electronic devices, paper records, photographs, and items reflecting joint marital interest. Plaintiff's removal of personal property from the residence on May 9, 2026, conducted during evening hours, by a single individual unknown to local witnesses, in a personal pickup truck, in the absence of any disclosed forwarding address or destination, materially increases the risk of loss, destruction, transfer, or concealment of evidence subject to the preservation framework set forth in the Omnibus Motion.
11. Email harassment of a material witness in this proceeding on the same date as the vacation. Approximately fifteen hours before Plaintiff's evening vacation of the Ross Dr Residence on May 9, 2026, Witness Helgren received two harassing emails directed at her relating to Defendant. Both emails were sent from a Google-hosted Gmail account bearing the address ecigaretteslut@gmail.com under sender display name "Angeline M." The first email arrived at approximately 5:31 AM EDT on May 9, 2026, with subject line "Conrad Rockenhaus is Dead," and the body falsely declared Defendant to have died "in slow, horrific agony from severe burns and sepsis," accused Witness Helgren of having stolen Defendant's debit card and used it to purchase lottery tickets, and accused Witness Helgren of being "complicit in hiding Conrad's rotting corpse so his mother can never bury him" (Exhibit 6). The second email arrived at approximately 6:06 AM EDT on May 9, 2026, with subject line "You left him to burn and rot," and contained an extended graphic narrative accusing Witness Helgren of leaving Defendant to die in a burning structure and dragging his body "to a trap house" to die of sepsis, closing with the line "I hope every single time you close your eyes, you see him screaming and burning" (Exhibit 7). Witness Helgren forwarded both emails to Defendant at 12:54 PM EDT on May 9, 2026, where they have been preserved on Defendant's email server. The full text of each email is attached hereto as Exhibits 6 and 7 with the forwarding metadata. Defendant did not transmit, author, authorize, or in any way endorse either email. Defendant is alive.
12. Continuation and broadening of the public-narrative campaign on the X social media platform. As documented in Defendant's Second Supplemental Motion in Case No. 26-102221-PP at paragraphs 8 through 28, an unauthorized post on Defendant's Facebook account dated May 4, 2026 falsely declared Defendant deceased and named witnesses material to this proceeding as responsible for the purported death; that post was amplified by an additional Facebook account configured under the user identifier "Demi-Jo Matthews" through a share into the public Facebook group "Michigan Missing Persons Alerts" and through a comment posted on Ms. Helgren's photograph stating "Is that right before you killed him?" The Demi-Jo Matthews account remained active and observable as of May 10, 2026 at approximately 11:00 AM EDT, at which time Defendant captured a contemporaneous screenshot of the account's public-facing profile (Exhibit 5), documenting the display name "Demi-Jo Matthews," the profile bio "Educate the poor.," a "Digital creator" badge, and follower-and-posting metrics of 191 followers, 420 following, and 1,400 posts; the underlying profile vanity URL is <https://www.facebook.com/amanda.berman.376> and the numeric Facebook user-identifier (owning_profile_id) reflected in page metadata is 100003851214028. On May 10, 2026, three users on the X social media platform engaged in a publicly visible exchange referencing Defendant's purported absence and asking whether anyone had been in contact with him, and quote-posting Defendant's Facebook profile with the caption "????? Seems bad?" (the "5/10 X Thread") (Exhibit 4). The 5/10 X Thread is materially consistent with the predicate seeded by the May 4, 2026 Facebook post and amplified by the Demi-Jo Matthews account, and demonstrates that the public-narrative campaign has now generated organic third-party speculation extending beyond the network of accounts identified in the Second Supplemental Motion.

13. Coordinated cross-vector pattern. The May 4 to May 10, 2026 sequence reflects coordinated false-narrative activity across at least three platforms (Facebook on May 4 through 7, Gmail on May 9, and X on May 10), advancing a single dead-man's-switch narrative directed at Defendant and at the witnesses to events at the Ross Dr Residence. Each vector is distinct in operational character: the May 4 Facebook post originated from a Facebook account previously operated by Defendant and no longer under Defendant's control; the May 5 to 7 Demi-Jo Matthews amplification operated through a sockpuppet Facebook account configured to block Witness Helgren from view; the May 9 Gmail harassment of Witness Helgren operated through a previously-unknown Google-hosted email account; and the May 10 X Thread operated through three publicly-visible X accounts linked to Plaintiff's broader online network. The convergence of these four vectors within a six-day window, advancing a single narrative, immediately preceding and contemporaneous with Plaintiff's vacation of the marital-property residence, constitutes the operational predicate for the preservation categories set forth in Section III.
14. Plaintiff's silence as operative element of the campaign. Plaintiff's verified X account, @adezero, has been documented in Defendant's Supplement to Motion to Terminate Personal Protection Order, filed in Case No. 26-102221-PP on April 26, 2026, as having maintained an average posting volume of approximately forty-five posts per day during the alleged-fear period preceding the February 20, 2026 PPO petition. On information and belief, Plaintiff has not posted publicly to that account for more than three weeks preceding the date of this Second Supplement. The 5/10 X Thread was triggered, in significant part, by Plaintiff's continuing silence on her own platform during the period in which the false-death narrative was seeded (May 4, 2026), amplified by the Demi-Jo Matthews account (May 5 through 7, 2026), distributed by email harassment (May 9, 2026), and extended by the 5/10 X Thread participants. Plaintiff's silence is, in this evidentiary context, an operative element of the campaign rather than a neutral act, because it is the absence-of-rebuttal that allows the seeded false predicate to propagate into the population of third parties associated with Plaintiff's public account.

III. SUPPLEMENTAL CATEGORIES OF EVIDENCE TO BE PRESERVED

15. In addition to Categories A through H of Part One of the Omnibus Motion and Categories I through N of the First Supplement, the following categories of evidence must also be immediately preserved by Plaintiff:

O. Vacation-of-Residence Records

All documents, communications, photographs, transportation records, moving-service records, storage-facility records, and other materials reflecting (i) Plaintiff's vacation of the Ross Dr Residence on or about May 9, 2026, (ii) the timing, sequence, and method of removal of personal property from the residence, (iii) any forwarding address, destination, or temporary location communicated by Plaintiff to any third party in connection with the vacation, and (iv) any return-date representation, intent-to-return statement, or non-return statement made by Plaintiff to any third party.

P. Personal Property Removed from Ross Dr Residence

All physical personal property removed by Plaintiff from the Ross Dr Residence in connection with the vacation referenced above, including without limitation electronic devices, storage media, paper records, photographs, financial documents, correspondence, items reflecting joint marital interest, and any items within the categories identified in Part One Categories A through H of the original Omnibus Motion and Categories I through N of the First Supplement. This Category requires Plaintiff to refrain from disposing of, transferring, destroying, or concealing such property pending further order of this Court.

Q. Lease and Landlord-Tenant Communications

All communications between Plaintiff and her landlord, including without limitation Eric of EJK Group, between January 1, 2026 and the date of this Order, including without limitation: lease-termination communications, forwarding-address communications, statements regarding intent to return or not return to the Ross Dr Residence, rent-payment communications, security-deposit communications, and property-disposition communications. This Category extends to communications conducted by electronic mail, text message, voice call, in-person conversation memorialized in any form, and any other medium.

R. 5/10 X Thread and Related Public-Narrative Records

All documents, communications, account-control records, login records, and platform-side records relating to the 5/10 X Thread referenced in paragraph 12 above, to the extent within Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control, including without limitation: any communications between Plaintiff and the participants in the 5/10 X Thread; any communications between Plaintiff and any account amplifying, reposting, or commenting upon the May 4, 2026 Facebook post or its derivative messages; and any account-creation, account-control, or account-coordination records for accounts within Plaintiff's network of confirmed associated identities to the extent such records reflect coordination with respect to the public-narrative campaign documented in the Second Supplemental Motion in Case No. 26-102221-PP and in this Second Supplement.

S. Vehicle, Transportation, and Personal-Assistance Records

All documents, communications, photographs, payment records, and other materials reflecting (i) the identity of any individual who assisted Plaintiff in vacating the Ross Dr Residence on or about May 9, 2026, including without limitation the operator of the vehicle bearing Michigan license plate 7RBK87 referenced in paragraph 8 above; (ii) the identity of the registered owner of the vehicle bearing Michigan license plate 7RBK87 to the extent within Plaintiff's knowledge, possession, or control; (iii) any communications between Plaintiff and any individual described in subparagraphs (i) or (ii) concerning the vacation, the moving event, the destination of removed personal property, or any related logistical, transportation, or storage matter; (iv) any payment, compensation, or consideration provided by Plaintiff or by any third party at Plaintiff's direction to any individual in connection with the moving event; and (v) any communications, planning records, or coordination records reflecting the timing, planning, or coordination of the May 9, 2026 vacation prior to that date.

T. Email-Harassment Records and Cross-Platform Sockpuppet-Network Coordination

All documents, communications, account-control records, login records, and platform-side records relating to the May 9, 2026 email harassment of Witness Helgren and the broader cross-platform sockpuppet-network campaign referenced in paragraphs 11 through 13 above, to the extent within Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control, including without limitation:

- (i) Any communications between Plaintiff and the operator(s) of the Gmail account ecigaretteslut@gmail.com regarding Defendant, Witness Helgren, Pamela Jordan, the dead-man's-switch narrative, or the May 9, 2026 vacation;
- (ii) Any communications between Plaintiff and the operator(s) of the Demi-Jo Matthews Facebook account regarding Defendant, the witnesses to events at the Ross Dr Residence, the dead-man's-switch narrative, or the public-group amplification of the May 4, 2026 Facebook post;
- (iii) Any communications between Plaintiff and the operator(s) of any of the three X accounts that participated in the 5/10 X Thread regarding Defendant, the witnesses, the dead-man's-switch narrative, or the May 9, 2026 vacation;
- (iv) Any communications between Plaintiff and any third party, including but not limited to Matthew Angel Young, regarding the construction of the "Dead Man's Switch Investigation" Google Maps overlay, the linking of fabricated GPS coordinates to local-news content, or the public propagation of the dead-man's-switch narrative;
- (v) Any payment, compensation, or other consideration provided by Plaintiff or at Plaintiff's direction to the operator(s) of ecigaretteslut@gmail.com, the Demi-Jo Matthews Facebook account, or the participants in the 5/10 X Thread, in connection with the campaign described in paragraphs 11 through 13;
- (vi) Any planning, drafting, content-development, or coordination records relating to the dead-man's-switch narrative, the harassment of Witness Helgren or other witnesses, the May 4 Facebook post, the May 5 to 7 Demi-Jo Matthews amplification, the May 9 Gmail harassment, or the May 10 X Thread; and
- (vii) Any account-creation, account-control, account-credential, recovery-email, recovery-telephone, or shared-payment-instrument records linking Plaintiff or any account operated by Plaintiff to (a) ecigaretteslut@gmail.com, (b) the Demi-Jo Matthews Facebook account, or (c) any of the three X accounts that participated in the 5/10 X Thread.

IV. AUTHORITY AND BASIS FOR SUPPLEMENTAL PRESERVATION

- 16. The legal authority for the preservation order requested in this Second Supplement is the same authority set forth in Part One of the Omnibus Motion and the First Supplement: MCR 2.310, MCR 2.313, the Court's inherent authority, and the spoliation framework of Teel v. Meredith, 284 Mich App 412 (2009).
- 17. The categories identified in this Second Supplement are evidence within the meaning of MCR 2.310 because they bear directly on the claims and defenses in this proceeding, including without limitation the questions of: (a) the location and disposition of personal property within the categories already subject to preservation orders or preservation obligations in this matter; (b) the credibility of representations made by Plaintiff regarding her residence, her availability for service of process, and her cooperation with the discovery process; (c) the existence and operation of a public-narrative campaign directed at the proceedings, the witnesses, and Defendant; (d) the use of digital and platform-based instrumentalities to influence the proceedings or to affect witnesses material to the proceedings; and (e) coordination between Plaintiff and third parties in connection with harassment of Defendant's witnesses and obstruction of the litigation.
- 18. The risk of spoliation as to these categories is concrete and specific. Plaintiff's vacation of the Ross Dr Residence on May 9, 2026 occurred without disclosure to Defendant or to this Court of a forwarding address or destination. The vacation occurred in the context of pending preservation requests, an active discovery period in this matter, and an active public-narrative campaign directly referencing Defendant's purported death and disappearance. The harassment of Witness Helgren by email on the same date demonstrates that the campaign is actively directed at the witnesses to the very events at issue in this Second Supplement. The combination of these circumstances materially increases the risk that evidence within the supplemental categories identified herein will be lost, destroyed, transferred, or concealed absent immediate preservation orders.

19. The categories identified in this Second Supplement do not duplicate Categories A through H of the original Omnibus Motion or Categories I through N of the First Supplement. Categories A and D of the original motion address physical and tangible evidence in general terms; this Second Supplement identifies specific evidence located at, removed from, or relating to a specific physical residence at a specific time, together with specific landlord-tenant communications, specific platform-based public communications, and specific email-harassment-and-sockpuppet-network communications, that have become evidentiarily significant since May 6, 2026 and that are not adequately captured by the general framing of the prior categories.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Defendant Conrad Alan Rockenhaus respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order:

20. Granting the relief requested in Part One of the original Omnibus Motion and the First Supplement to Part One;
21. Expanding the preservation order to include Categories O, P, Q, R, S, and T as set forth in Section III of this Second Supplement;
22. Requiring Plaintiff to immediately preserve, and refrain from altering, deleting, destroying, concealing, transferring, or modifying access to, all records, documents, communications, personal property, and account-control history identified in Categories O, P, Q, R, S, and T;
23. Requiring Plaintiff, within seven (7) days of entry of this Order, to disclose to the Court and to Defendant Plaintiff's current physical residence and any forwarding address established in connection with the vacation of the Ross Dr Residence;
24. Providing that any alteration, deletion, destruction, concealment, transfer, or modification of access to evidence subject to this Order shall constitute contempt of court and may result in sanctions and adverse-inference instructions at trial; and
25. Granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

Witness Helgren Contemporaneous Text Message Thread, May 9, 2026

iMessage Thread between Ann Helgren and Conrad Alan Rockenhaus Date of Communications: May 9, 2026 Captured: May 9, 2026 (screenshots) Subject: Vacation activity at 26695 Ross Drive, Redford, Michigan

The screenshots reproduced in this Exhibit are excerpts from the iMessage thread between Witness Ann Helgren and Defendant Conrad Alan Rockenhaus on the evening of May 9, 2026. Witness Helgren contemporaneously transmitted to Defendant photographs of the white Ford F-250 Super Duty vehicle bearing Michigan license plate 7RBK87, photographs and video of the unidentified male individual conducting the moving activity, and her own narrative observations including the statements "She's moving out," "This guy's got boxes he's moving out of the house," and "they're in the house right now by themselves. I don't know what they're doing there. There's only one person." A "Read 9:30 PM" delivery receipt within the thread anchors the time of the contemporaneous communications.

The unidentified male individual, dressed in dark clothing, is depicted carrying a white laundry basket containing personal property at the front entrance of the Ross Dr Residence. A second container of personal property is visible to the right of the individual. The brick facade of the residence is visible in the background.

Video still 1 of 2. Frame extracted from a 3.93-second video recording captured by Witness Ann Helgren on May 9, 2026 at 9:31:37 PM Eastern Daylight Time. Captured device: iPhone 14. Embedded creation timestamp: 2026-05-09T21:31:37-0400. Frame depicts the residence facade and what appears to be staged personal property at the front of the dwelling.

Video still 2 of 2. Frame extracted from the same 3.93-second video recording. Frame depicts the unidentified male individual carrying the white laundry basket of personal property in front of the Ross Dr Residence, corroborating the still photograph at page 1 of this Exhibit. The native HEVC video file in unaltered original format is preserved by Defendant and is available for the Court's in-camera review upon request.

Public X Social Media Thread Speculating About Defendant's Status, May 10, 2026

Screenshot of Public Thread on the X Social Media Platform Platform: X (formerly Twitter) Date of Thread: May 10, 2026 Time of Originating Quote-Post: 3:46 AM Captured: May 10, 2026 (screenshot) Participants: Three publicly identified user accounts

This Exhibit reproduces a screenshot of a publicly visible exchange on the X social media platform on May 10, 2026, in which three users referenced Defendant Conrad Alan Rockenhaus's purported absence and asked whether anyone had been in contact with him. The thread includes a parent post observing that Plaintiff has not posted to her own X account in approximately three weeks, a reply from user "chr00t" stating "it's now been 5 weeks," a reply from user "venatiodecorus" stating "isnt conrad out now? ne1 get in touch w/ him?" and a quote-post by user "FuxNet" reproducing Defendant's Facebook profile page with the caption "????? Seems bad?" The thread is offered for the limited purpose of demonstrating that the public-narrative campaign documented in Defendant's Second Supplemental Motion in Wayne County Case No. 26-102221-PP, filed May 6, 2026, has now generated organic third-party speculation extending beyond the network of accounts identified in that motion. Defendant does not allege that the named X users are participants in the campaign; the Exhibit goes to propagation of the seeded predicate, not to the participants' state of mind.

FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLIC NEWS

RELEASE:

Because of Anne Helgren, Conrad Rockenhaus spent 12 days dying in slow, horrific agony from severe burns and sepsis, while no one helped him. Helgren bought lottery tickets with Conrad's stolen debit card while he screamed from the burns, dying alone in unimaginable pain. Now Helgren is complicit in hiding Conrad's rotting corpse so his mother can never bury him.

Anne Helgren,

When Conrad was burning alive, when his own synthetic shorts were melting into his skin, when the pain was so bad he couldn't even scream anymore, you weren't there, Anne Helgren.

You had already abandoned him.

You took a broken, brain-damaged man who could barely think straight, used him, moved him around like a fucking puppet, and when he finally caught fire and suffered the most horrific death imaginable, you dragged his charred, burning body to a trap house and left him there to rot in agony for days, Anne Helgren.

He didn't die fast. He died slow. He died screaming alone while sepsis ate him alive from the inside. His body swelled, his skin blistered and split, and he suffered in that house until his heart finally gave out.

And you knew, Anne Helgren. You knew.

You knew he was too fucked up to be on his own. You knew he was dying. But instead of calling for help, you chose to be muderously selfish. You chose to cover your own ass. You chose to leave him there like a piece of trash so you wouldn't get caught.

He trusted you.

And you killed him.

You weren't his friend. You were the last person who had a chance to save him, and you chose to let him die in one of the worst ways a human being can die.

I hope every single time you close your eyes, you see him screaming and burning.

Because that's exactly what you did to him, Anne Helgren.

End of Exhibit 7. Reproduction note: the misspelling "muderously" in lieu of "murderously" appears in the original email and is preserved verbatim.
