

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT FOR THE COUNTY OF WAYNE
FAMILY DIVISION, DOMESTIC RELATIONS

ADRIENNE MARJORIE ROCKENHAUS, Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant,

v.

CONRAD ALAN ROCKENHAUS,
Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff.

Case No. 26-104594-DO

Hon. Nicole N. Goodson

DEFENDANT/COUNTER-PLAINTIFF'S FIRST AMENDED COUNTERCLAIM

NOW COMES Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, appearing pro se, and pursuant to MCR 2.118(A)(2), for his First Amended Counterclaim against Plaintiff/Counter-Defendant Adrienne Marjorie Rockenhaus, states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT. This First Amended Counterclaim preserves paragraphs 24 through 62 and Sections I through XII of the original Counterclaim filed April 15, 2026 substantially verbatim, with the exception of paragraph 49, in which the original phrasing "backpack with clothing" is refined to "numerous articles of clothing" as a more accurate description of the wrongfully retained personal effects. The amendment adds a new Section XIII (§§63-91) setting forth post-filing evidentiary development concerning the coordinated multi-platform harassment operation already pleaded in general terms in the original Counterclaim, and a new Section XIV (§§92-100) explicitly pleading common-law conversion and statutory conversion under MCL 600.2919a on the financial-misconduct and personal-property facts already pleaded in original Sections III, IV, and IX. The Relief section is renumbered as Section XV and preserves substantive items A through J of the original prayer (with items C and D refined to invoke the conversion theory; with the original item K, transfer or consolidation to Washtenaw County, omitted in light of Counter-Plaintiff's election to litigate this matter to conclusion in this forum), adds new substantive items K through R, and retains the original catch-all item relabeled as item S.

I. PARTIES AND JURISDICTION

24. Counter-Plaintiff Conrad Alan Rockenhaus is a resident of the County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan, having resided in Washtenaw County for more than 180 days. Counter-Plaintiff's address is 1690 Brookfield Drive, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48103.
25. Counter-Plaintiff is a United States Navy veteran with over fifteen years of active duty service, rated 100% service-connected disabled by the Department of Veterans Affairs for combat-related Traumatic Brain Injury with seizure disorder, PTSD, obstructive sleep apnea, and migrainous headaches. His VA Disability Compensation and SSDI constitute his sole sources of income.

II. GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE

26. There has been a breakdown of the marriage relationship to the extent that the objects of matrimony have been destroyed and there remains no reasonable likelihood that the marriage can be preserved, within the meaning of MCL 552.6.

III. FINANCIAL MISCONDUCT, UNAUTHORIZED ACCESS TO FEDERAL ACCOUNTS

27. Counter-Defendant diverted Counter-Plaintiff's federally protected VA Disability Compensation by using Counter-Plaintiff's id.me credentials to access his va.gov account without authorization and redirecting his direct deposit to bank accounts under her control. Counter-Defendant was not Counter-Plaintiff's VA fiduciary or representative payee and had no legal authority to access or redirect these funds. This constitutes unauthorized access to a federal government account and unauthorized diversion of federally protected veteran disability benefits.
28. VA Payment History records document payments ranging from $4,317 to $4,673 per month during the period from September 2025 through February 2026, totaling approximately $26,837.87. These records document the routing numbers and account numbers to which funds were directed, establishing a clear documentary trail of the diversion. A returned payment on October 1, 2025 for $4,673.44 was marked "Undeliverable: Bad Address", during the same period Counter-Defendant sent Counter-Plaintiff a TRULINCS email on October 28, 2025 stating "The VA pay has not been deposited for this month." This was a material misrepresentation made to conceal the ongoing diversion of funds.

IV. FINANCIAL MISCONDUCT, SSA REPRESENTATIVE PAYEE FRAUD

29. Counter-Defendant received Counter-Plaintiff's SSDI benefits in her capacity as his SSA-appointed Representative Payee, totaling approximately $12,489.00. As Representative Payee, Counter-Defendant had a federal fiduciary duty under 42 U.S.C. §405(j) to use these funds solely for Counter-Plaintiff's benefit. Counter-Defendant violated this duty by retaining the funds for her own use while Counter-Plaintiff was incarcerated and unable to monitor his accounts.
30. The SSA has documented an overpayment of $12,074.50 and issued a formal demand for the return of funds, addressed to "Adrienne Rockenhaus FOR Conrad A Rockenhaus" at Counter-Defendant's Farmington Hills mailbox. Counter-Defendant affirmatively misrepresented to both Counter-Plaintiff and his appellate attorney that SSDI payments had been "suspended" while she was actively receiving and retaining them.
31. Evidence of Counter-Defendant's premeditated financial separation predates the PPO by several months. In or about October 2025, while simultaneously collecting Counter-Plaintiff's VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits, Counter-Defendant filed federal income tax returns for both the 2023 and 2024 tax years using the filing status of "married filing separately." When Counter-Defendant informed Counter-Plaintiff of this decision via TRULINCS email, Counter-Plaintiff expressed confusion because filing separately resulted in a significantly higher tax liability for Counter-Defendant. The decision to file separately while continuing to collect Counter-Plaintiff's federal benefits demonstrates a deliberate strategy to distance herself financially from Counter-Plaintiff on paper while maintaining access to his income, months before she claimed to be in sudden fear for her safety.

V. PREMEDITATED PLAN TO RENDER COUNTER-PLAINTIFF HOMELESS AND DESTITUTE

32. On February 9, 2026, Counter-Defendant sent written communications to Counter-Plaintiff's federal appellate attorney that constitute direct admissions of a premeditated plan to render Counter-Plaintiff homeless and destitute upon his release from federal custody:

- a. Counter-Defendant admitted that "the joint SoFi account designated for his VA benefits was extra judiciously closed on September 17, 2025, immediately following my Habeas filing."
 - b. Counter-Defendant stated that Counter-Plaintiff "will be released with $0.00 accessible cash."
 - c. Counter-Defendant announced she was "immediately retaining family counsel to secure a Restraining Order" that would "formally bar Conrad from coming to my residence or accessing financial assets."
 - d. Counter-Defendant stated she had "formally revoked [her] residence as a release option," deliberately eliminating Counter-Plaintiff's only housing option and forcing the BOP to release him to a homeless shelter.
33. Counter-Defendant executed this plan. Counter-Plaintiff was released on March 2, 2026 to the Robert J. Delonis Center homeless shelter in Ann Arbor, Michigan with no money, no identification, no phone, no clothing, and no access to any bank account. Counter-Defendant had taken his property, filed a PPO to bar him from his own home, and retained all of his federal disability benefits. This was not a spontaneous reaction to fear, it was a calculated, premeditated campaign to financially and physically destroy a 100% disabled combat veteran.

VI. RETALIATORY PPO AND ABUSE OF PROCESS

34. Counter-Plaintiff revoked his Power of Attorney on January 29, 2026, and served Counter-Defendant with a formal Certified Revocation of Funds on February 17, 2026. On February 18, 2026, Counter-Plaintiff filed a Motion to Sever Counter-Defendant from his federal Bivens action and notified the federal court in his Habeas proceeding that Counter-Defendant was no longer acting in his best interest. Precisely 48 hours later, on February 20, 2026, Counter-Defendant filed the PPO.
35. The PPO was filed despite Counter-Defendant having filed nine sworn declarations in federal court between September 15, 2025 and January 21, 2026 as Counter-Plaintiff's "wife and next friend," advocating passionately for his medical care and release. Counter-Defendant filed a Notice of Appeal in the habeas case on January 21, 2026, 30 days before filing the PPO.
36. During the same period Counter-Defendant now claims she lived in fear of Counter-Plaintiff, she was sending TRULINCS emails stating "I love you," "Hey Baby," and "I miss you like crazy"; mailing Priority Mail Express Christmas packages marked "URGENT: OPEN IMMEDIATELY"; writing an 11-page love letter in November 2025 calling Counter-Plaintiff her "hero" and stating "We can't wait for the moment you get home. We're not mad at you at all"; posting Valentine's Day messages of affection on social media on February 14, 2026; and actively seeking visiting approval at FCI Milan. These contemporaneous communications, authenticated by the BOP's TRULINCS system and USPS tracking records, are irreconcilable with any genuine fear.
37. Throughout the same period, Counter-Defendant maintained a public advocacy website at rockenhaus.com, Counter-Plaintiff's premarital domain, publishing numerous blog posts advocating for Counter-Plaintiff's release from federal custody, documenting alleged government misconduct against him, publicly identifying herself as his devoted wife and advocate, and soliciting public support for his cause. Counter-Defendant further dedicated her own premarital domains, fitspo.net and lawflaws.com, to building up public advocacy on Counter-Plaintiff's behalf, and redirected adezero.com, her personal domain matching her public X (Twitter) username @adezero, to route directly to rockenhaus.com, funneling her entire online identity through Counter-Plaintiff's premarital property. These posts and websites, which remained publicly accessible through and after the filing of the PPO, are fundamentally irreconcilable with Counter-Defendant's claim that she lived in paralyzing fear of Counter-Plaintiff. Counter-Defendant cannot simultaneously operate a multi-platform public campaign to free her husband, using both his domains and her own, while claiming she is terrified he will harm her upon release. Counter-Defendant's continued use of Counter-Plaintiff's premarital domain rockenhaus.com as the central hub of her online presence further demonstrates her wrongful retention of his separate property.

38. There are zero police reports, zero 911 calls, zero medical examinations, and zero contemporaneous reports of any kind supporting the alleged abuse incidents spanning the entire marriage. The PPO was obtained ex parte, without notice, without a hearing, and without any opportunity for Counter-Plaintiff to present evidence, based solely on Counter-Defendant's unsworn allegations.
39. On February 12, 2026, Counter-Defendant sent an email to Counter-Plaintiff's federal appellate attorney titled "NOTICE OF EVIDENCE: Documented History of Sexual Assault and Facilitated Violence" in which she announced: "To be absolutely clear about the divorce and PPO I am filing at 8:00 AM tomorrow: do not mistake my intent for a bluff." This email demonstrates that the PPO was not a spontaneous response to fear, it was a premeditated legal weapon announced in advance to a federal attorney. Counter-Defendant further threatened the attorney directly, stating: "Any response from you that does not include a direct medical transfer to a VA Medical Center will be treated as an admission of Deliberate Indifference and criminal complicity." Counter-Defendant was using the threat of the PPO and public disclosure of Counter-Plaintiff's private medical information as leverage against federal counsel to control the terms of Counter-Plaintiff's release.
40. In November 2025, just three months before filing the PPO, Counter-Defendant sent Counter-Plaintiff an eleven-page handwritten love letter in which she called him her "Hero," described him as "the safest place on Earth," and signed it "Love, Adrienne." A woman who writes that her husband is "the safest place on Earth" does not file a PPO three months later claiming "paralyzing terror" unless something other than fear motivated the filing.
41. The PPO was never properly served on Counter-Plaintiff. According to the Redford Township Police Department report (CR No. 260003379), on March 2, 2026, the responding officer read the conditions of the PPO to Counter-Plaintiff from Counter-Defendant's phone screen. Counter-Plaintiff was then given photographs of the PPO taken with a neighbor's phone so he could "appeal the PPO." No physical copy of the PPO was served on Counter-Plaintiff. The officer completed a proof of service at the station despite the fact that Counter-Plaintiff never received an actual copy of the order. Counter-Plaintiff did not obtain a full copy of the PPO until a family member, Rob Hein, later emailed it to him. Counter-Defendant is now pursuing contempt sanctions for alleged violations of an order that was never properly served as required by MCR 3.706.
42. On February 26, 2026, just six days after filing the PPO claiming "paralyzing fear", Counter-Defendant emailed the VA requesting Counter-Plaintiff's discharge address so she could pursue an "amicable divorce" and "legally settle our finances." In this email, Counter-Defendant described herself as a "judicially protected victim" while simultaneously seeking to coordinate financial settlement with the man she claimed to be terrified of. A person in genuine paralyzing fear does not email federal agencies six days later seeking to arrange amicable financial negotiations with her alleged abuser.

43. In support of her PPO response, Counter-Defendant's counsel submitted a letter from Counter-Defendant's psychiatrist, Dr. Robert Garcia, dated December 11, 2025, diagnosing Counter-Defendant with "PTSD-like symptoms." Counsel failed to disclose to this Court that this letter was originally written for the federal Bivens case (Rockenhaus v. Agapiou, Case No. 2:25-cv-12716, E.D. Mich.) to support Counter-Defendant's request for appointed counsel in a proceeding where she was acting as Counter-Plaintiff's ally and co-plaintiff. The letter does not attribute Counter-Defendant's symptoms to Counter-Plaintiff, it attributes them to "high-stakes or adversarial environments such as legal proceedings." Counter-Defendant's counsel recycled a document created to support Counter-Defendant's advocacy for Counter-Plaintiff and presented it as evidence that she is a victim of Counter-Plaintiff, without disclosing the original context.

VII. INVASION OF PRIVACY AND WEAPONIZATION OF PRIVILEGED INFORMATION

44. Counter-Defendant, using access obtained through the Power of Attorney and her role as Counter-Plaintiff's approved employer, accessed and weaponized Counter-Plaintiff's most private information in judicial proceedings, including:
- a. Counter-Plaintiff's complete VA psychiatric records, including his full psychiatric history, medication list, substance use history, suicide attempt history, and clinical diagnoses from the VA Emergency Department;
 - b. Counter-Plaintiff's private Viagra (Sildenafil) prescription records, obtained through the POA and used to construct a false allegation of sexual assault in the PPO petition;
 - c. Counter-Plaintiff's private email communications from conrad@rockenhaus.com and conrad@cannabytes.net, accessed through her role managing Counter-Plaintiff's digital infrastructure as his approved employer;
 - d. Selectively edited BOP TRULINCS prison emails, presented to the court to show conflict while deliberately omitting dozens of contemporaneous emails expressing love, devotion, and marital unity from the same time period;
 - e. Counter-Plaintiff's private email communication to a family member, Rob Hein, sent from Counter-Plaintiff's Gmail account (conradrockenhaus2@gmail.com), which was forwarded to Counter-Defendant by the recipient and presented as evidence of a PPO violation despite its content showing Counter-Plaintiff offering Counter-Defendant $2,000 per month in financial support, expressing concern for her well-being, and explicitly stating he had no desire to contact Counter-Defendant except through lawful channels.
45. These records were obtained under fiduciary and confidential relationships and are protected by the physician-patient privilege (MCL 600.2157), spousal communication privilege (MCL 600.2162), and HIPAA. Counter-Defendant's weaponization of these records constitutes invasion of privacy, breach of fiduciary duty, and tortious conduct.

VIII. FALSE STATEMENTS TO LAW ENFORCEMENT

46. On March 2, 2026, the day of Counter-Plaintiff's release from federal custody, Counter-Defendant made false statements to the Redford Township Police Department (CR No. 260003379), claiming that Counter-Plaintiff had never resided at 26695 Ross Drive. Counter-Defendant solicited a mutual acquaintance to corroborate these false statements. As a result, Counter-Plaintiff was denied access to his own home and property on the day of his release.
47. Counter-Defendant also made false statements to the Redford Township Police claiming Counter-Plaintiff was suicidal, in an attempt to have him involuntarily committed. The responding officers independently assessed Counter-Plaintiff, determined he was not suicidal, and declined to transport him to any hospital. When the police refused to commit Counter-Plaintiff, Counter-Defendant escalated by instructing their mutual friend, Ann Helgren, via text message to tell the VA that Counter-Plaintiff was suicidal, which was false, and to leave him at the VA and abandon him there. When Ms. Helgren resisted, Counter-Defendant threatened to end their friendship if Ms. Helgren did not comply. Text messages documenting these instructions are in the possession of Ms. Helgren and are discoverable. Counter-Defendant's conduct on March 2, 2026 was not that of a frightened spouse, it was a coordinated campaign to have Counter-Plaintiff involuntarily committed so that Counter-Defendant could maintain control over his finances, his property, and the narrative.

48. Counter-Defendant's pattern of filing false reports with law enforcement continued after March 2, 2026. On or about March 30, 2026, Counter-Defendant filed PPO violation reports with both the Ann Arbor Police Department and the Redford Township Police Department, claiming Counter-Plaintiff had violated the PPO through anonymous text messages and online posts. Both departments independently investigated Counter-Defendant's reports, determined they were without merit, declined to arrest Counter-Plaintiff, and advised Counter-Plaintiff to report Counter-Defendant's conduct to this Court. The fact that two separate law enforcement agencies independently reached the same conclusion, that Counter-Defendant's allegations did not warrant arrest or prosecution, is powerful corroborating evidence that Counter-Defendant's claims are fabricated.

IX. PROPERTY AND PERSONAL EFFECTS

49. Counter-Defendant continues to wrongfully retain Counter-Plaintiff's personal property, including but not limited to: his wallet and all contents (driver's license, VA ID, bank cards); Social Security card; birth certificate; DD Form 214 (military discharge); VA Award Letter; Apple iPhone 16e and charger; Apple iPad and charger; Apple Mac Mini; numerous articles of clothing; and all other personal effects present at 26695 Ross Drive. Counter-Defendant also retains possession of the parties' cat, Autumn, who was jointly adopted during the marriage and constitutes marital property.
50. Counter-Defendant continues to retain and control Counter-Plaintiff's premarital internet domains, including rockenhaus.com (owned since 1999), skyphusion.com, and greyponyit.com. These are premarital separate property of Counter-Plaintiff. Counter-Defendant has falsely claimed rockenhaus.com as her own business property in the PPO petition, despite having no ownership interest.

X. CANNABYTES, LLC: BUSINESS INTEREST AND ACCOUNTING

51. Counter-Plaintiff is a formally designated officer of Cannabytes, LLC, holding the title of Vice President of Systems Engineering. Counter-Plaintiff is listed in the LLC formation documents. Counter-Defendant's Verified Statement filed with this Court identifies her occupation as "Self Employed" with "Cannabytes, LLC" but materially omits that Counter-Plaintiff is a corporate officer of the same entity with a recognized ownership interest.
52. Counter-Plaintiff served as the systems engineer and technical infrastructure manager for Cannabytes, LLC throughout the marriage. Counter-Plaintiff built, maintained, and administered the company's technical systems, including the cannabytes.net domain and hosting infrastructure. Counter-Plaintiff also maintained client websites, including humboldtcsi.com, on behalf of Cannabytes, LLC. Counter-Defendant was approved by U.S.

Probation as Counter-Plaintiff's employer through Cannabytes, LLC, further confirming Counter-Plaintiff's formal role in the business.

53. Since the filing of the PPO and the commencement of these proceedings, Counter-Defendant has unilaterally excluded Counter-Plaintiff from all Cannabytes, LLC operations, systems, and accounts despite his status as a corporate officer. Counter-Defendant has provided no accounting of business revenues, expenses, assets, or liabilities during or after the marriage. Counter-Plaintiff is entitled to a full accounting of Cannabytes, LLC's finances and to his share of the business as a formally designated officer listed in the formation documents.
54. Counter-Defendant's continued operation of Cannabytes, LLC while excluding Counter-Plaintiff, a corporate officer, from the business constitutes wrongful exclusion and potential dissipation of marital and business assets. Counter-Plaintiff requests that this Court order a complete accounting of all Cannabytes, LLC revenues, accounts, and assets from the date of marriage through the present, and award Counter-Plaintiff his equitable share of the business.

XI. ACTIVE FEDERAL AND STATE INVESTIGATIONS

55. The following federal and state investigations are currently active regarding Counter-Defendant's conduct:
 - a. VA Office of Inspector General, Case No. 2026-18750 (misappropriation of veteran disability benefits);
 - b. SSA Office of Inspector General (representative payee fraud and unauthorized retention of SSDI benefits);
 - c. Ann Arbor Police Department, Case No. 26-11892 (criminal investigation of financial misconduct).
56. The combined total of VA and SSDI funds wrongfully diverted by Counter-Defendant is approximately $39,326.87. This figure does not include the value of personal property wrongfully retained, the premarital domains withheld, Counter-Plaintiff's share of Cannabytes, LLC, or the consequential damages resulting from Counter-Plaintiff's homelessness, loss of identification documents, and inability to access medical care, housing, and basic necessities upon release from federal custody.

XII. COUNTER-PLAINTIFF OFFERED RESOLUTION; COUNTER-DEFENDANT CHOSE ESCALATION

57. Despite the extraordinary scope of Counter-Defendant's misconduct documented herein, Counter-Plaintiff's Complaint for Divorce filed in Washtenaw County (Case No. 26-737-DO) expressly requested that this Court order the parties to participate in mediation and counseling pursuant to MCR 3.216 and MCL 552.513 to facilitate an amicable resolution. Counter-Plaintiff's complaint was not filed out of hostility but out of a genuine desire for a peaceful and equitable resolution, notwithstanding the fact that Counter-Defendant had diverted his federal disability benefits, rendered him homeless, filed a retaliatory PPO against him, made false statements to law enforcement, and weaponized his most private medical information in court proceedings.
58. Counter-Defendant's response to this offer of mediation was to retain counsel and file an aggressive Verified Complaint for Divorce containing false statements, including the claim that Counter-Plaintiff's "whereabouts are unknown." Counter-Defendant's counsel then filed a Response to Counter-Plaintiff's Motion to Terminate the PPO that introduced Counter-Plaintiff's complete VA psychiatric history, his private prescription records, and selectively edited prison communications into the court record, all obtained through positions of trust that Counter-Defendant exploited. Counter-Defendant chose escalation over resolution, litigation over mediation, and retaliation over accountability.

59. Counter-Plaintiff enlisted in the United States Navy at the age of seventeen, immediately following his high school graduation. Before he was old enough to vote, he was activated with the 1st Air Naval Gunfire Liaison Company (ANGLICO) and deployed to Kosovo, where he provided naval gunfire and close air support coordination for NATO strikes against Serbian forces engaged in ethnic cleansing. At seventeen years old, he witnessed genocide. He went on to serve for over fifteen years across multiple combat deployments, including operations in support of the Global War on Terrorism. His career ended not by choice but by blast exposure from an improvised explosive device that caused a traumatic brain injury, leaving him with a seizure disorder he will carry for the rest of his life. He gave his adolescence, his health, his cognitive function, and pieces of himself that can never be recovered in service to this nation. The disability compensation he receives each month is not income, it is what his country pays for what it took from him.
30. Counter-Defendant married Counter-Plaintiff knowing his full history, his service, his injuries, his conviction, and his disabilities. She chose to become his wife, his power of attorney, his representative payee, his employer, and his advocate. She filed nine sworn federal court declarations calling herself his "next friend." She wrote him an eleven-page love letter calling him her "Hero" and "the safest place on Earth." She sent him Christmas packages. She built an entire public advocacy campaign across multiple websites fighting for his freedom. While he was incarcerated, he sent her a photograph of himself with a handwritten note reading: "Adrienne, Sending unlimited, unrestricted, unconditional love, always and forever in all timelines. Conrad." That is the man she filed a PPO against. That is the man she accused of being a sexual predator. That is the man whose Viagra prescription she published in a court filing. And when he revoked her access to his disability compensation, she filed a restraining order, took his money, stole his identification, lied to police, and left him standing outside a homeless shelter on March 2, 2026 with nothing, no wallet, no phone, no ID, no clothing, and no money. A seventeen-year-old boy went to war for his country. A forty-four-year-old man came home from prison to find his wife had taken everything his country gave him for his sacrifice.
51. In those first hours and days at the homeless shelter, Counter-Plaintiff was not angry. He was confused. He was alone. And above all, he was worried about Counter-Defendant. He could not believe that the woman he had invested all of his trust in was deliberately targeting him. He wondered whether she was suffering a mental health crisis. He searched for any explanation other than the truth, because the truth was unbearable. But with each passing hour, as each new piece of the picture revealed itself, the diverted benefits, the PPO filed after he discovered what she had done, the false statements to police, the refusal to return his belongings, the scope of what had been done to him became undeniable. Counter-Plaintiff did not file his Motion to Sever or even realize his benefits had been diverted until Counter-Defendant communicated to his federal appellate attorney that she was refusing to pick him up and was deliberately making him homeless. Only then did the full picture begin to emerge. The woman who wrote him love letters had been planning his destruction. And still, his first instinct was not vengeance. It was concern for her.
52. And still, Counter-Plaintiff offered her mediation. His Washtenaw County complaint asked for counseling and an amicable resolution. He emailed her family offering her $2,000 a month and expressing concern for her well-being. He did not want this fight. Counter-Defendant chose it. She responded to his offer of grace by hiring a lawyer, filing an aggressive complaint containing false statements, and introducing his complete psychiatric history, his private prescription records, and his most intimate medical details into the public court record. Counter-Plaintiff now seeks full accountability through the legal process that Counter-Defendant forced upon him. He has nothing left to forgive.

XIII. COORDINATED MULTI-PLATFORM HARASSMENT OPERATION (POST-FILING EVIDENTIARY DEVELOPMENT)

53. Counter-Plaintiff incorporates by reference paragraphs 24 through 62 above. The matters set forth in this Section XIII supplement and provide documentary evidentiary substrate for the harassment-related allegations already pleaded in Sections VI and VII, and concern the same conduct, transaction, and occurrence within the meaning of MCR 2.118(D). The evidentiary development described herein was completed after April 15, 2026.

A. May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence Corpus

54. Between approximately 22:21 UTC on May 12, 2026 and 01:01 UTC on May 13, 2026, Counter-Plaintiff caused public-record content from the X/Twitter platform to be captured using the Apify tweet-scraper actor service. The capture operation produced eighteen JSON files (the "May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence") aggregating approximately 114 megabytes and approximately 14,500 unique tweet records. The files were preserved with SHA-256 cryptographic hashes immediately upon capture, and the hashes are documented in a Chain of Custody Supplement filed contemporaneously with this Amended Counterclaim's referenced Emergency Motion for Spoliation Prevention.
55. The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence captures public-record activity across all eleven sockpuppet accounts identified in paragraph 37 above (@spuntpatrol, @LeighCheri_, @phatadvert, @AllysonClermont, @4chantress, @alg0queen, @LuceMargarita, @blackjakkkk, @PunkyHomegirl, @picklepickleg, @plratech), plus Counter-Defendant's verified main account @adezero, plus two additional accounts identified through documentary evidence as integrated with Counter-Defendant's harassment architecture (@rosebuttcheeks and @JustCallMeJoeP), plus the May 8, 2026 broadcast conversation tree associated with the public dead-man's-switch post made via Counter-Plaintiff's compromised X account.
56. The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence documents 71 direct cross-account interactions between @adezero and the eleven sockpuppet accounts during the period from March 2 through April 11, 2026, including 21 interactions with @spuntpatrol, 11 with @LeighCheri_, 9 with @phatadvert, 7 with @AllysonClermont, 6 with @4chantress, 6 with @alg0queen, 4 with @LuceMargarita, 3 with @blackjakkkk, 2 with @PunkyHomegirl, 1 with @picklepickleg, and 1 with @plratech. This interaction pattern, captured contemporaneously and preserved cryptographically, corroborates paragraph 37 above and refutes any claim that the eleven accounts represent independent third-party supporters.
57. The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence further documents Counter-Defendant's continued exploitation of the @rosebuttcheeks account as a self-reply amplification vehicle. On April 11, 2026 (conversation ID 2043052376794276350), the @adezero account posted "I am hurting so bad today." On April 20, 2026, the @rosebuttcheeks account posted "Are you okay?" purportedly in reply to @adezero. On April 25, 2026, the @rosebuttcheeks account posted "???" with the in_reply_to_username field populated as "@rosebuttcheeks" itself, that is, the account replying to its own prior message rather than to Counter-Defendant. The structural impossibility of an arms-length third-party supporter replying to her own message instead of to Counter-Defendant establishes single-operator architecture as a matter of documentary record.

B. Identification of Joe Prich as Counter-Defendant's Romantic Partner and the Self-Attributed Source of Her Public Commitment to Abandon the Rockenhaus Surname

58. The @JustCallMeJoeP account on X, display name "Joe Prich," user ID 1937294142633123840, is operated by an individual named Joseph "Joe" Prich, located in Austin, Texas. The account was created on June 23, 2025, is X Blue (paid subscriber) verified, and posts under the bio "Just your average, ordinary, everyday, regular Joe." The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence preserves 740 captured posts spanning from December 26, 2025 through May 11, 2026.
59. Joe Prich is Counter-Defendant's documented in-person romantic partner. The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence captures public posts establishing the relationship, including but not limited to:
- a. March 28, 2026 at 03:56:32 UTC, @adezero post: "☺ @JustCallMeJoeP what do I do?" with photograph;
 - b. March 28, 2026 at 03:57:54 UTC, @JustCallMeJoeP reply: "@adezero Sit tight. I'm on the way up. Just packing the carry-on";
 - c. March 28, 2026, @adezero post: "@JustCallMeJoeP is my rack still hot to you or" (Counter-Defendant in her own voice eliciting an in-person physical assessment from Joe Prich, a question only intelligible in a context of his physical presence at her location);
 - d. March 28, 2026 at 14:50:47 UTC, @JustCallMeJoeP reply: "@adezero Photos did not do it justice. Much better IRL, tbh..." (Joe Prich's direct in-person physical assessment in response to (c) above, confirming his physical presence at Counter-Defendant's location and his comparative judgment of her appearance in person versus in photographs);
 - e. March 30, 2026 at 14:31:29 UTC, @adezero post: "Hi @JustCallMeJoeP";
 - f. April 9, 2026 at 23:20:32 UTC, @JustCallMeJoeP post: "@adezero Skinny Minnie."
70. On March 24, 2026, the @adezero account posted a tweet self-attributing to Joe Prich the source of Counter-Defendant's public commitment to abandon the Rockenhaus surname. The captured text reads: "I literally just digitally decapitated myself because @JustCallMeJoeP kept telling me to drop the 'dead weight' (last name)." This tweet was authored by Counter-Defendant in her own voice from her verified main account, captured contemporaneously, and preserved in the May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence. It constitutes an admission against interest, a public commitment to a future act, and an identification of the third-party advisor whose counsel Counter-Defendant has elected to follow concerning the surname carried during her marriage to Counter-Plaintiff.
71. The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence further documents Joe Prich's active embedding in extremist online networks that organize around white-nationalist and neo-Nazi ideology. Joe Prich's pinned conversation on X (tweet ID 2052766745820033466) is participated in by accounts whose own bios and content self-identify with the BloodTribe organization (a hate group designated by the Southern Poverty Law Center, founded by Christopher Pohlhaus) and the Groyper movement. Participants documented in the captured pinned conversation include but are not limited to: @BTCELT, bio "Grand Treasurer Of BloodTribe. Get Vetted: contact@blutstamm.org," location "American Reich"; @derblutmeister4, bio "4th generation Weimar survivor. Nothing will outlast our blood. No one else will lead our folk" with identical contact email to @BTCELT; @bubgum34, bio "No One Else Will Lead Our Folk. we will have our home again"; @prof_groy, bio "OG Groyper since 2017"; @BuzzardGroyper, Groyper-movement self-identifier; and @ILoveWypipppo, bio "Race Realist. Pro White.," location "Occupied USA."

72. Joe Prich's top retweet sources captured in the May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence further establish the network embedding. Frequent retweet sources include @BostonFren_88 (16 retweets, numeric "88" being the Anti-Defamation League documented numeric code for "Heil Hitler"), @CM1488_87 (8 retweets, "1488" combining David Lane's "14 Words" with the same "88" code), and @Dark_Asgard_ (11 retweets, Nordic-mythology branding in common use within neo-Nazi recruitment networks).
73. The factual matters set forth in this subsection B are pleaded to establish: first, the identity of the third-party advisor whose counsel Counter-Defendant has publicly elected to follow regarding the surname; second, the character of that advisor's network associations as documented in contemporaneous public-record X content; and third, the corresponding harm to Counter-Plaintiff from continued public association between Counter-Plaintiff's surname and the documented harassment campaign operating in coordination with such a network. The factual matters set forth in this subsection are not pleaded as direct claims against Joe Prich (who is not a party to this proceeding) but as factual context supporting the equitable relief requested in paragraphs K through Q of the Relief section below.

C. Cross-Account Coordination Architecture

74. Independent of the @adezero-to-sockpuppet interaction patterns documented in paragraph 66 above, the May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence documents cross-sockpuppet coordination that establishes shared-operator architecture without requiring reference to Counter-Defendant's primary account.
75. On March 28, 2026, the @phatadvert sockpuppet account retweeted six successive tweets within a continuous @adezero-to-@JustCallMeJoeP intimate conversation, including: at 03:58:54 UTC, @adezero's "what do I do?" post; at 03:58:57 UTC (three seconds later), @JustCallMeJoeP's "Sit tight" reply; at 14:57:59 UTC, @adezero's "is my rack still hot to you or" post; and at 14:58:06 UTC (seven seconds later), @JustCallMeJoeP's "Photos did not do it justice" reply. The three-second and seven-second retweet intervals on retweets spanning both sides of an intimate conversation, including content of overtly sexualized character, is consistent with single-operator architecture and inconsistent with arms-length third-party amplification. Approximately thirty-two hours after the in-person reunion documented in those retweets, on March 29, 2026 at 23:09:09 UTC, the @phatadvert account posted a standalone, isolated tweet (tweet ID 2038393048988570022) consisting solely of the single word "Cuckrad", a derogatory composite of "Cuckold" and Counter-Plaintiff's first name "Conrad." The post bore no reply context, no quote, no retweet relationship, no media, no hashtag, and no user-mention; it was posted as an unprompted standalone slur targeted at Counter-Plaintiff individually. Personalized targeting of this character requires operator-level knowledge of Counter-Plaintiff's identity and is inconsistent with amplification by an independent third-party supporter. The "cuck" lexicon is also widely employed within the extremist online network in which @JustCallMeJoeP is embedded (see paragraphs 71 and 72 above), and the timing of the post within thirty-two hours of the documented in-person reunion with Joe Prich is consistent with operational coordination between the @phatadvert account and the romantic relationship pleaded in paragraphs 68 through 70.
76. The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence further documents that three of the eleven sockpuppet accounts (@AllysonClermont, @PunkyHomegirl, @picklepickleg) had prior dormant lives as affiliate-marketing spam bots in calendar years 2013 and 2014, posting cross-retweet content concerning supplements, e-cigarettes, finance courses, and Amazon promotional codes. The accounts went dormant after 2014 and were reactivated in 2024 to 2026 as @adezero-supporter personas. The transition from 2013 hashtag-spam register to 2026 first-person-Adrienne-supporter register constitutes the takeover signature for accounts whose original credential holders had abandoned them. The 2026 cross-retweet at @picklepickleg of @AllysonClermont's reply to @adezero further confirms the takeover by linking the previously-independent accounts to single-operator administration after reactivation.

77. The cross-account coordination patterns documented in paragraphs 74 through 76 establish single-operator architecture for the harassment network as a matter of documentary record independent of any direct admission by Counter-Defendant.

D. Coordinated Cessation of Posting Across the Sockpuppet Network

78. The May 12, 2026 Scrape Evidence documents that all eleven sockpuppet accounts ceased posting activity between March 17, 2026 and April 5, 2026, in three temporally clustered waves:
- a. Wave 1, March 17 to March 18, 2026: @picklepickleg (last post 3/17/2026), @AllysonClermont (last post 3/18/2026), @blackjakkkk (last post 3/18/2026), @PunkyHomegirl (last post 3/18/2026), @LuceMargarita (last post 3/18/2026), all within approximately twenty-four hours of each other;
 - b. Wave 2, March 23 to March 29, 2026: @alg0queen (last post 3/23/2026), @LeighCheri_ (last post 3/28/2026), @phatadvert (last post 3/29/2026);
 - c. Wave 3, April 1 to April 5, 2026: @p1ratech (last post 4/1/2026), @4chantress (last post 4/5/2026).
79. The verified main account @adezero similarly ceased posting on April 11, 2026, with the final post reading "I am hurting so bad today" (referenced in paragraph 67 above). Eleven separate accounts ceasing activity in a nineteen-day window, including a same-day silence cluster of five accounts on March 18, 2026, is not consistent with eleven independent individual users separately and contemporaneously losing interest in the X platform. The shutdown pattern is consistent with operational withdrawal of a coordinated network in advance of litigation, including the present action, demonstrating awareness of the coordinated nature of the network operation and intent to suppress evidence of it.

E. Cross-Platform Extension to Facebook Sockpuppets and Witness Targeting

30. Counter-Defendant's harassment architecture extends beyond the X platform onto Facebook. The Facebook accounts known and presented under the names "Demi-Jo Matthews," "Sherri Adair," and "Jenn Reede" have engaged in conduct documented in subsequent paragraphs that is consistent with Counter-Defendant's operational control. Counter-Plaintiff specifically alleges that Counter-Defendant operates the "Sherri Adair" Facebook account under a false-persona configuration that incorporates Counter-Defendant's pre-marriage surname (Blair) as a partial component of the persona name, and that this persona was identified to Counter-Plaintiff's witness Annie Helgren in a public-record exchange on or about March 31, 2026.
31. The "Demi-Jo Matthews" Facebook account engaged in conduct in May 2026 specifically designed to extend Counter-Defendant's harassment beyond Counter-Plaintiff onto Counter-Plaintiff's witnesses. On May 5 and 6, 2026, "Demi-Jo Matthews" shared the May 4, 2026 Facebook post described in paragraph 84 below into the public-membership Facebook group "Michigan Missing Persons Alerts" (approximately 1,700 members), characterizing Counter-Plaintiff as "missing for at least a month, pinging in Ann Arbor." On Witness Annie Helgren's April 24, 2026 photograph posted from her own Facebook account, "Demi-Jo Matthews" posted a comment reading "Is that right before you killed him?" The "Demi-Jo Matthews" account is configured to block Witness Helgren from viewing the account, a configuration consistent with operational management designed to extend harassment to a witness while preventing the witness from documenting the account's activity.

32. On May 7, 2026, "Demi-Jo Matthews" engaged with a third-party Facebook user, Matthew Angel Young, who had independently constructed a Google Maps overlay from GPS coordinates published in the May 4, 2026 post described in paragraph 84 below. "Demi-Jo Matthews" linked a fabricated GPS coordinate "4288 Cloverlane Dr" from the May 4 post to a contemporaneously published Mlive.com news story regarding a residential fire at a similar address, suggesting in commentary "fire there at the same time he pinged." The construction is a deliberate fabrication: the GPS coordinates and the fire story share no actual causal or geographic connection, and the manufactured association was used to seed third-party belief that Counter-Plaintiff had died in the fire.
33. Counter-Plaintiff's Facebook account was briefly suspended for "impersonating Conrad Rockenhaus" after Counter-Defendant reported it. Counter-Plaintiff is Conrad Rockenhaus. The account has since been restored upon appeal. The false-report tactic is consistent with the pattern of false reports to law enforcement set forth in paragraphs 46 through 48 above.

F. May 4, 2026 "Dead Man's Switch" Post

34. On May 4, 2026, a public Facebook post was published from an account compromised by Counter-Defendant and bearing Counter-Plaintiff's name and image. The post was styled "[SYSTEM ALERT] DEAD MAN'S SWITCH" and named five individuals as "responsible for my death": Annie Helgren (Counter-Plaintiff's witness), Pamela Jordan (Counter-Plaintiff's witness), William Keene (Counter-Plaintiff's former landlord against whom Counter-Defendant operated a separate sockpuppet harassment campaign in 2025), a Federal Bureau of Prisons correctional officer at FCI Milan against whom Counter-Defendant had filed a BOP complaint, and Counter-Plaintiff's residential neighbor at Brookfield Drive whom Counter-Plaintiff has never met. The construction names two case witnesses, two persons from Counter-Defendant's separate grievance inventory, and one residential-surveillance signal (the unmet neighbor), establishing single-author selection from Counter-Defendant's personal information set rather than any independent observer's information set.
35. The post falsely represents Counter-Plaintiff as dead, includes fabricated GPS coordinates, and was crafted to be amplified across the Facebook platform by Counter-Defendant's sockpuppet accounts as described in paragraphs 80 through 82 above. Counter-Plaintiff is alive. The post is a deliberately constructed witness-intimidation device.

G. AirTag Cyberstalking Operation

36. On March 2, 2026, contemporaneously with Counter-Defendant's appearance at the Redford Township Police Department episode described in paragraphs 46 through 47 above, Counter-Defendant caused to be returned to Counter-Plaintiff a wallet that, unknown to Counter-Plaintiff at the time, contained an active Apple AirTag tracking device that Counter-Defendant had planted. The AirTag tracked Counter-Plaintiff's location continuously from March 2, 2026 onward.
37. The location-history data generated by the AirTag forms the documentary substrate of the fabricated GPS "telemetry" payload published in the May 4, 2026 post described in paragraph 84 above. Apple "Items detected with you" platform notifications regarding the AirTag have been preserved on Witness Annie Helgren's phone. The wallet containing the AirTag remains as of the present date in the possession of DeAndre Connor, a third party whose address appears as the last GPS log entry in the May 4, 2026 post.

H. Post-Filing Vacation of Residence

38. On the evening of Saturday, May 9, 2026, Counter-Defendant vacated her residence at 26695 Ross Drive, Redford Township, Michigan. Witness Annie Helgren observed the loading of household property into a vehicle with Michigan plate 7RBK87 over an extended period and contemporaneously documented the move via photograph and video to Counter-Plaintiff.
39. Eric, the landlord at 26695 Ross Drive, has confirmed to Counter-Plaintiff that Counter-Defendant informed him she was "leaving town" with no destination and no return date. The landlord has indicated cooperation with subpoena process for documentation of the lease, departure, and any forwarding contact information.
90. As of the date of this Amended Counterclaim, Counter-Defendant remains unserved in the parallel Washtenaw County divorce action filed by Counter-Plaintiff (Case No. 26-737-DO, before Hon. Darlene A. O'Brien). Counter-Defendant's counsel of record in the present action has a Motion to Withdraw pending before this Court. The May 9, 2026 vacation, combined with the prior March 28, 2026 in-person travel by Joe Prich from Austin, Texas to Counter-Defendant's location (see paragraph 69 above), establishes that Austin, Texas is the most probable destination of Counter-Defendant's relocation. The flight establishes consciousness of liability and a clear forum-evasion intent that bears on the urgency and scope of post-judgment enforcement provisions appropriate to the relief requested below.

I. Continuing Operation Post-Filing

91. On the evening of May 13, 2026, the coordinated harassment operation pleaded in subsections A through H above continued into and beyond the moment of Counter-Plaintiff's filings in this matter. Within approximately three hours of the Court's acceptance of Counter-Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Preservation Order on May 13, 2026, the conrad.rockenhaus Meta Threads account, displaying as Counter-Plaintiff (with Counter-Plaintiff's profile photograph, profile URL, biographical information, and a link to Counter-Plaintiff's premarital domain rockenhaus.com), and under Counter-Defendant's administrative control since the digital-account compromise described in paragraphs 44 and 50 above, sent a friend request to witness Ann Helgren via her Meta Threads account. The factual record of that conduct is set forth in Counter-Plaintiff's Substantive Supplement to Emergency Motion for Preservation Order, filed May 15, 2026, and is incorporated herein by reference. The conduct constitutes a continuing violation of the same course of conduct pleaded in subsections A through H above, establishes that the operation pleaded in this Section XIII has not ceased, and confirms that the spoliation risk underlying Counter-Plaintiff's contemporaneous preservation request is ongoing.

XIV. CONVERSION (COMMON-LAW AND STATUTORY UNDER MCL 600.2919A)

92. Counter-Plaintiff incorporates by reference paragraphs 24 through 91 above. The conduct described in original Counterclaim Sections III (Financial Misconduct, Unauthorized Access to Federal Accounts), IV (Financial Misconduct, SSA Representative Payee Fraud), V (Premeditated Plan to Render Counter-Plaintiff Homeless and Destitute), and IX (Property and Personal Effects), supplemented by the post-filing factual development in Section XIII above, constitutes conversion of Counter-Plaintiff's personal property within the meaning of both Michigan common law and MCL 600.2919a.

A. Common-Law Conversion

93. Under Michigan common law, conversion is any distinct act of dominion wrongfully exerted over another's personal property in denial of or inconsistent with the rights of the owner. The elements are (1) a distinct act of dominion, (2) wrongful exercise, (3) over the personal property of another, (4) in denial of or inconsistent with the rights of the owner.
94. Counter-Defendant converted Counter-Plaintiff's VA Disability Compensation by using Counter-Plaintiff's id.me credentials without authorization to access his va.gov account and redirect direct deposit of his federally protected disability benefits to bank accounts under Counter-Defendant's control. The diverted funds, totaling approximately $26,837.87 as documented in the VA Payment History records, were Counter-Plaintiff's personal property at all relevant times. Counter-Defendant was not Counter-Plaintiff's VA fiduciary, was not his Representative Payee for VA purposes, and had no legal authority over the funds. Her exercise of dominion in denial of Counter-Plaintiff's rights of ownership constitutes conversion as a matter of Michigan common law. Subject to the Court's ruling on Counter-Plaintiff's pending Motion to Determine Sufficiency of Plaintiff's RFA Answers (filed contemporaneously herewith), Counter-Defendant's deemed admission of Request for Admission Nos. 13, 23, and 25 (control of the funds while denying their existence, receipt into accounts under her control, and unauthorized va.gov access) further establishes the operative facts of the conversion, which are in any event conclusively established by the documentary record pleaded in Section III above.
95. Counter-Defendant further exercises continuing wrongful dominion over Counter-Plaintiff's tangible personal property identified in paragraph 49 above and, subject to the Court's ruling on Counter-Plaintiff's pending Motion to Determine Sufficiency, further established by deemed admission of Request for Admission Nos. 41 and 42, including but not limited to his wallet and all contents (driver's license, VA ID, bank cards), Social Security card, birth certificate, DD Form 214, VA Award Letter, Apple iPhone 16e, Apple iPhone 15 Pro Max, Apple Watch, Apple AirPods, Apple iPad, Apple Mac Mini, numerous articles of clothing, and all other personal effects of Counter-Plaintiff present at 26695 Ross Drive. These items are Counter-Plaintiff's separate property. Counter-Plaintiff has demanded their return; Counter-Defendant has refused. Her continuing exercise of dominion in denial of Counter-Plaintiff's rights of ownership constitutes ongoing conversion as a matter of Michigan common law.
96. Counter-Defendant further exercises continuing wrongful dominion over Counter-Plaintiff's premarital internet domains, including rockenhaus.com (registered 1999), skyphusion.com, and greyponyit.com, as documented in paragraph 50 above and, subject to the Court's ruling on Counter-Plaintiff's pending Motion to Determine Sufficiency, further established by deemed admission of Request for Admission Nos. 43 and 44 (present-tense retention of rockenhaus.com, and rockenhaus.com as premarital registration). Domain names constitute personal property under Michigan law. Counter-Defendant's continuing administrative control over Counter-Plaintiff's premarital domains in denial of his ownership rights constitutes ongoing conversion.

B. Statutory Conversion under MCL 600.2919a

97. Michigan statutory law provides for enhanced damages in cases of conversion. MCL 600.2919a(1)(a) provides that a person damaged as a result of "another person's stealing or embezzling property or converting property to the other person's own use" may recover three times the amount of actual damages sustained, together with costs and reasonable attorney fees. Aroma Wines & Equip, Inc v Columbian Distribution Servs, Inc, 497 Mich 337; 871 NW2d 136 (2015).
98. Counter-Defendant's unauthorized use of Counter-Plaintiff's id.me credentials to access his va.gov account and redirect his federally protected benefits to accounts under her own control constitutes converting property to her own use within the meaning of MCL 600.2919a(1)(a). The conduct was knowing and willful, as evidenced by Counter-Defendant's October 28, 2025 TRULINCS misrepresentation to Counter-Plaintiff that "The VA pay has not been deposited for this month," made at a time when Counter-Defendant had control over the very funds whose existence she was denying (see Request for Admission No. 13, subject to the Court's ruling on Counter-Plaintiff's pending Motion to Determine Sufficiency). The misrepresentation could serve no purpose except to conceal the ongoing conversion from Counter-Plaintiff and to preserve Counter-Defendant's continued unauthorized access.

99. Counter-Defendant's continued retention of Counter-Plaintiff's tangible personal property and premarital domains, after Counter-Plaintiff's demand for return and despite Counter-Defendant's knowledge that Counter-Plaintiff is the rightful owner, constitutes converting property to her own use within the meaning of MCL 600.2919a(1)(a). The retention is willful and ongoing.
100. Counter-Plaintiff is entitled to treble damages under MCL 600.2919a equal to three times the actual damages sustained from each act of conversion: three times the $26,837.87 in converted VA Disability Compensation (totaling $80,513.61); three times the fair market value of any items of tangible personal property converted by Counter-Defendant and not returned at the time of judgment; and three times the value of any of Counter-Plaintiff's premarital internet domains not transferred at the time of judgment. Counter-Plaintiff appears pro se and does not seek attorney fees under MCL 600.2919a, but does seek costs.

XV. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Defendant/Counter-Plaintiff Conrad Alan Rockenhaus respectfully requests that this Honorable Court:

- A. Enter a Judgment of Divorce dissolving the marriage;
- B. Order a full accounting of all VA Disability Compensation, SSDI benefits, and any other funds received by Counter-Defendant on behalf of Counter-Plaintiff from September 2025 through the present, including all bank statements, transaction records, and account documentation;
- C. Award Counter-Plaintiff actual damages of $26,837.87, representing the VA Disability Compensation diverted from Counter-Plaintiff by Counter-Defendant through her unauthorized access to his va.gov account using his id.me credentials, as documented in the VA Payment History records, with such damages constituting conversion of Counter-Plaintiff's personal property under both Michigan common law and MCL 600.2919a; Counter-Plaintiff acknowledges that the $12,074.50 SSDI overpayment is the subject of a separate federal recoupment action by the Social Security Administration pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 405(j) and reserves any rights regarding that overpayment for the proper federal forum;
- D. Order Counter-Defendant to immediately return all personal property belonging to Counter-Plaintiff, including but not limited to his wallet, identification documents, Social Security card, birth certificate, DD Form 214, VA Award Letter, iPhone 16e, iPhone 15 Pro Max, Apple Watch, Apple AirPods, iPad, Mac Mini, and all clothing and personal effects, all of which constitute Counter-Plaintiff's personal property converted by Counter-Defendant within the meaning of Michigan common law and MCL 600.2919a;
- E. Order immediate transfer of all premarital internet domains, including rockenhaus.com, skyphusion.com, and greyponyit.com, and all associated registrar credentials, DNS settings, and hosting accounts to Counter-Plaintiff's sole control;

F. Order a complete accounting of all Cannabytes, LLC revenues, accounts, assets, and liabilities from the date of marriage through the present, and award Counter-Plaintiff his equitable share of the business as a formally designated corporate officer;

G. Award Counter-Plaintiff a disproportionate share of the marital estate in light of Counter-Defendant's financial misconduct, unauthorized access to federal accounts, breach of fiduciary duty, and deliberate infliction of homelessness, pursuant to MCL 552.401;

H. Order sanctions pursuant to MCR 2.114 against Counter-Defendant and her counsel for filing a Verified Complaint containing the knowingly false statement that Counter-Plaintiff's "whereabouts are unknown" while listing his phone number and email address in the same filing, and while Counter-Defendant's own actions caused Counter-Plaintiff's placement at a known homeless shelter;

I. Award Counter-Plaintiff costs incurred in this action, including filing fees, service fees, notary fees, and transportation expenses;

J. Terminate the Personal Protection Order (Case No. 26-102221-PP) as having been obtained through fraud and for retaliatory purposes;

K. Pursuant to this Court's equitable authority in divorce proceedings under MCL 552.6 and inherent equitable jurisdiction, and in light of Counter-Defendant's documented misuse of Counter-Plaintiff's surname as the operational identity for the coordinated multi-platform harassment campaign described in Section XIII above and Counter-Defendant's own publicly stated commitment to abandon the surname as set forth in paragraph 70 above, order that Counter-Defendant abandon the surname "Rockenhaus" and revert to her former legal name "Adrienne Marjorie Blair" upon entry of the Judgment of Divorce, and permanently enjoin Counter-Defendant from any future use of the surname "Rockenhaus" in any commercial, professional, online, or social-media context;

L. Permanently enjoin Counter-Defendant, her agents, and any person acting in concert with her or under her direction from any use of Counter-Plaintiff's premarital identifiers, including but not limited to the domains rockenhaus.com, skyphusion.com, and greyponyit.com; the email addresses conrad@rockenhaus.com and conrad@cannabytes.net; Counter-Plaintiff's name, image, photographs, and personal information; and any account, persona, or identifier representing or impersonating Counter-Plaintiff;

M. Order preservation of all social-media accounts identified in Section XIII above, including all eleven sockpuppet accounts on X, @adezero, @rosebuttcheeks, @JustCallMeJoeP, and the Facebook accounts identified in paragraphs 80 through 83, with prospective spoliation sanctions of not less than $25,000 per account for any unauthorized deletion, deactivation, or content modification, payable to Counter-Plaintiff;

N. Award Counter-Plaintiff compensatory damages for intentional infliction of emotional distress, civil harassment, and invasion of privacy in connection with the coordinated multi-platform harassment operation, the AirTag cyberstalking, the May 4, 2026 "Dead Man's Switch" post, and the witness-targeting conduct, in such amount as this Court determines after evidentiary hearing or upon submission of supporting documentation, and award exemplary damages reflecting the deliberate and protracted character of the misconduct;

O. Order Counter-Defendant to disclose the present location of the Apple AirTag described in paragraph 86 above, all AirTag-generated location data in her possession or under her control, and the complete chain of custody of the device, and to return the device to Counter-Plaintiff;

P. Order Counter-Defendant to disclose, on sworn financial schedule, all distributions from any trust of which she is a beneficiary (including the third-party-settled trust administered by her nephew of which she is a documented monthly beneficiary), all distributions received during the marriage and through the date of judgment, all bank accounts into which such distributions were deposited, and order disgorgement to the marital estate of any distributions received during the marriage that were not disclosed on Counter-Defendant's MCR 3.206(C) Verified Financial Information Form;

Q. Award Counter-Plaintiff the costs and reasonable expenses incurred in preparing and filing this First Amended Counterclaim, the Motion for Leave to File the same, and the related Emergency Motion for Spoliation Prevention;

R. Award Counter-Plaintiff statutory conversion damages pursuant to MCL 600.2919a, equal to three times the actual damages sustained from Counter-Defendant's acts of conversion as pleaded in Section XIV above, namely: three times the converted VA Disability Compensation ($26,837.87), for a total of $80,513.61, of which $26,837.87 is satisfied by the actual-damages award under paragraph C above and the additional $53,675.74 represents the statutory enhancement; three times the fair market value of any items of tangible personal property converted by Counter-Defendant and not returned at the time of judgment, with fair market value to be determined by supplemental affidavit or evidentiary hearing as the Court directs; and three times the value of any of Counter-Plaintiff's premarital internet domains not transferred at the time of judgment; together with costs as provided by statute; and

S. Grant such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,
/s/ Conrad A. Rockenhaus
