

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT FOR THE COUNTY OF WAYNE
FAMILY DIVISION, DOMESTIC RELATIONS

ADRIENNE MARJORIE ROCKENHAUS, Plaintiff,

v.

CONRAD ALAN ROCKENHAUS, Defendant.

Case No. 26-104594-DO

Hon. Yvonna C. Abraham

DEFENDANT'S OMNIBUS MOTION FOR ORDER TO PRESERVE EVIDENCE, FOR FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND ACCOUNTING, AND FOR EMERGENCY TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER REGARDING PREMARITAL DOMAIN ROCKENHAUS.COM

NOW COMES Defendant, Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, appearing pro se, and pursuant to MCR 2.310, MCR 2.313, MCR 3.206, MCR 3.310, MCL 552.401, and MCL 600.2950, respectfully moves this Honorable Court for three forms of emergency relief that are unified by a single underlying reality: Plaintiff has demonstrated a sustained, premeditated pattern of destroying, concealing, and converting Defendant's assets and evidence, and without immediate court intervention, she will continue to do so. These three forms of relief are presented together because they are inseparable. Evidence preservation without financial disclosure is blind. Financial disclosure without evidence preservation is empty. And both are meaningless if Plaintiff is simultaneously allowed to permanently dispose of Defendant's premarital property. In support thereof, Defendant states as follows:

I. COMMON FACTUAL BACKGROUND

1. Defendant is a 100% service-connected disabled United States Navy veteran. His sole sources of income are VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits, compensation paid by this nation for permanent injuries sustained during combat operations including a traumatic brain injury with seizure disorder caused by an improvised explosive device.
2. During Defendant's incarceration at FCI Milan, Plaintiff served simultaneously as his SSA-appointed Representative Payee, his Power of Attorney holder, and his approved employer through Cannabytes, LLC. These roles gave her legal access to and fiduciary control over Defendant's finances, benefits, private records, and digital infrastructure.
3. Plaintiff used these positions of trust to: divert approximately $39,326.87 in federally protected VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits into accounts under her sole control; access Defendant's va.gov account using his id.me credentials without authorization; make false representations to Defendant and his appellate attorney that his SSDI payments had been suspended while she was actively receiving them; plan and execute a scheme to render Defendant homeless upon his release from federal custody; file a retaliatory PPO two days after Defendant filed his Motion to Sever; make false statements to law enforcement; and retain Defendant's personal property, identification documents, and premarital internet domains.
4. On February 9, 2026, Plaintiff sent written communications to Defendant's federal appellate attorney admitting that Defendant would be released with "$0.00 accessible cash," that she had formally revoked her residence as his release option, and that she was retaining counsel to secure a restraining order barring him from accessing his financial assets. These are not allegations. They are Plaintiff's own written admissions.

5. Three active law enforcement investigations document the scope of Plaintiff's misconduct: VA OIG Case No. 2026-18750, SSA OIG, and Ann Arbor Police Department Case No. 26-11892. The Social Security Administration has issued a formal demand for the return of $12,074.50 in overpayments addressed to Plaintiff as Defendant's Representative Payee.
6. This pattern of conduct, documented in Plaintiff's own writings and in federal and state investigative records, establishes that the risks addressed in each of the three parts of this motion are real, immediate, and not speculative. Plaintiff has shown repeatedly that she will take aggressive action to deprive Defendant of his assets, evidence, and property whenever she believes she can do so without immediate consequence. The purpose of this omnibus motion is to impose those consequences before further harm occurs.

II. PART ONE: MOTION FOR ORDER TO PRESERVE EVIDENCE

7. Michigan courts have inherent authority to issue preservation orders to protect the integrity of evidence in pending litigation. MCR 2.310 and MCR 2.313 authorize this Court to enter orders protecting the evidentiary record.
8. The duty to preserve evidence is in full effect. This case is active and pending. Defendant has today served Plaintiff with a comprehensive discovery package consisting of Interrogatories, Requests for Production, and Requests for Admissions. The evidence sought in that discovery package is directly relevant to the claims and defenses in this action.
9. Spoliation of evidence is sanctionable under Michigan law and may give rise to an adverse inference instruction at trial. Teel v. Meredith, 284 Mich App 412 (2009). Plaintiff went silent on all social media platforms immediately upon retaining counsel, suggesting awareness of the evidentiary significance of her public posts advocating for Defendant's release, posts that are directly contradicted by her PPO allegations.
10. The following categories of evidence must be immediately preserved:

A. Financial Records

All bank statements, transaction records, and financial records relating to Plaintiff's receipt, retention, transfer, or disbursement of Defendant's VA Disability Compensation and SSDI benefits from September 2025 through the present, including all personal accounts, PayPal, Venmo, Cash App, cryptocurrency wallets, and any other financial account into which Defendant's funds were deposited.

B. Digital and Electronic Evidence

All emails, text messages, social media posts, blog posts, website content, TRULINCS messages, online portal access logs, id.me account access logs, va.gov account access records, and any other electronic communications or digital records relating to Defendant, his incarceration, his benefits, his medical condition, his finances, his release, or any claims or defenses in this action.

C. Physical Correspondence

All letters, cards, notes, photographs, drawings, envelopes, and any other physical correspondence sent by Plaintiff to Defendant at FCI Milan or any other facility during his incarceration, including the November 2025 handwritten letter, Priority Mail Express packages sent by Plaintiff to Defendant, and the photograph with accompanying note that Plaintiff forwarded to the Robert J. Delonis Center after the PPO was filed.

D. Personal Property

All personal property belonging to Defendant currently in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control, including but not limited to Defendant's wallet, driver's license, VA ID, Social Security card, birth certificate, DD Form 214, VA Award Letter, Apple iPhone 16e, Apple iPad, Apple Mac Mini, clothing, and all other personal effects.

E. Business Records

All financial records, client records, contracts, formation documents, and operational records of Cannabytes, LLC, including all records relating to Defendant's role as Vice President of Systems Engineering and formally designated corporate officer.

F. Internet Domains and Digital Infrastructure

All domain registration records, DNS settings, hosting account records, website content, and associated credentials for rockenhaus.com, skyphusion.com, greyponyit.com, fitspo.net, lawflaws.com, adezero.com, and cannabytes.net.

G. Power of Attorney Records

All records, communications, documents, and evidence of any action taken by Plaintiff under or purportedly under the Power of Attorney granted to her by Defendant while he was incarcerated.

H. Communications with Third Parties

All communications between Plaintiff and any third party, including the BOP, FCI Milan, Livingston County Jail, the DOJ, the VA, the SSA, law enforcement agencies, Ann Helgren, Krystal McConico, medical providers, attorneys, and any other person, regarding Defendant, his incarceration, his benefits, his release, or his post-release circumstances.

III. PART TWO: MOTION FOR FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE AND ACCOUNTING

11. MCR 3.206(C) requires each party in a domestic relations action to provide the other party with a verified financial disclosure statement. Plaintiff has not provided any such disclosure despite the case being at issue.
12. MCL 552.401 authorizes this Court to make orders as it considers just and equitable concerning the disposition of property in light of a party's dissipation of marital assets. Plaintiff's diversion of approximately $39,326.87 in Defendant's federal disability benefits constitutes precisely the dissipation of assets MCL 552.401 is designed to address.
13. VA Payment History records document that VA Disability Compensation payments ranging from $4,317 to $4,764 per month were directed to accounts under Plaintiff's control during the period of September 2025 through February 2026, totaling approximately $26,837.87, without Defendant's authorization.
14. In her capacity as SSA-appointed Representative Payee, Plaintiff received five SSDI payments totaling $12,489.00 between November 2025 and March 2026 that she was legally required under 42 U.S.C. §405(j) to use solely for Defendant's benefit. She did not. She retained them while falsely telling Defendant and his appellate attorney that his SSDI had been suspended.
15. Plaintiff has continued to operate Cannabytes, LLC, a business in which Defendant holds the title of Vice President of Systems Engineering and is a formally designated corporate officer, while completely excluding Defendant from all operations, accounts, and revenues since the PPO was filed. No accounting has been provided.
16. The urgency of this motion is heightened by the fact that Plaintiff has had sole control over approximately $39,326.87 in Defendant's funds since September 2025, plus Cannabytes, LLC revenues. Those funds may be further dissipated if disclosure and accounting are not ordered immediately.

IV. PART THREE: EMERGENCY TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER REGARDING

PREMARITAL DOMAIN ROCKENHAUS.COM

17. rockenhaus.com is Defendant's premarital separate property. It was registered on September 7, 2001, more than twenty-one years before the parties' marriage on May 20, 2023. WHOIS records confirm the creation date conclusively. Under MCL 552.401, property acquired before marriage is separate property not subject to equitable division.
18. The domain is currently registered through Cloudflare, Inc. and expires on September 7, 2026, less than five months from the date of this motion. This divorce proceeding is unlikely to reach final judgment before that date. Without a TRO, Plaintiff could allow the domain to lapse, transfer it to a third party, or otherwise permanently destroy this premarital asset before this Court adjudicates ownership.
19. Plaintiff is currently in possession and control of rockenhaus.com. She published blog posts on the site as recently as March 8, 2026. In her PPO petition filed February 20, 2026, she falsely swore under oath that rockenhaus.com was her own business domain and sought court orders prohibiting Defendant from accessing it. This sworn false statement establishes both her awareness of the domain's value and her intent to claim it as her own.
20. Defendant has no adequate remedy at law. A domain name, once transferred, deleted, or allowed to lapse, cannot be restored. Twenty-five years of associated identity, history, and digital presence will be permanently and irreversibly destroyed. Money damages cannot compensate for the loss of a unique premarital asset with a twenty-five year history.
21. All four factors for injunctive relief under Pontiac Fire Fighters Union Local 376 v. City of Pontiac, 482 Mich 1 (2008) weigh decisively in Defendant's favor:
 - a. Likelihood of success: The creation date of September 7, 2001 establishes premarital ownership as a matter of objective fact. WHOIS records are attached as Exhibit A.
 - b. Irreparable harm: The domain expires September 7, 2026. Once lapsed or transferred, it is gone permanently.
 - c. Balance of hardships: The TRO asks only that Plaintiff maintain the status quo and not permanently dispose of property she does not own. Zero hardship to Plaintiff, total and permanent harm to Defendant without it.
 - d. Public interest: Michigan courts have a strong interest in protecting premarital separate property from dissipation during divorce proceedings.

V. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, Defendant Conrad Alan Rockenhaus respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting the following unified relief:

A. As to Preservation of Evidence

22. Requiring Plaintiff to immediately preserve, and refrain from altering, deleting, destroying, concealing, or transferring, all evidence relevant to this proceeding, including all categories identified in Part One above;
23. Requiring Plaintiff to preserve all electronic data, emails, text messages, social media content, website content, and digital records relating to Defendant, his incarceration, his benefits, his medical condition, his finances, his release, and any claims or defenses in this action;
24. Requiring Plaintiff to preserve all physical correspondence received from Defendant during his incarceration in its original unaltered form;
25. Requiring Plaintiff to preserve all Cannabytes, LLC records and all internet domain records and credentials;
26. Providing that any alteration, deletion, destruction, or concealment of evidence subject to this Order shall constitute contempt of court and may result in sanctions and adverse inference instructions at trial;

B. As to Financial Disclosure and Accounting

27. Requiring Plaintiff to immediately provide a complete verified financial disclosure statement pursuant to MCR 3.206(C), including all income, assets, liabilities, and financial accounts;
28. Requiring Plaintiff to provide a sworn accounting of every VA Disability Compensation payment and every SSDI benefit payment belonging to Defendant that she received, controlled, or disbursed, including the date, amount, account, and disposition of each payment;
29. Requiring Plaintiff to provide a complete accounting of all Cannabytes, LLC revenues, accounts, assets, and liabilities from the date of the parties' marriage through the present;
30. Requiring Plaintiff to produce complete bank statements for all financial accounts in her name or under her control from September 1, 2025 through the present;
31. Requiring Plaintiff to provide her federal and state income tax returns for tax years 2023 and 2024;
32. Enjoining Plaintiff from dissipating, transferring, concealing, or otherwise disposing of any marital assets or any funds wrongfully diverted from Defendant pending further order of this Court;

C. As to the Emergency TRO on rockenhaus.com

33. Immediately entering a Temporary Restraining Order prohibiting Plaintiff from: (a) transferring, selling, assigning, or conveying rockenhaus.com or any associated registrar credentials to any third party; (b) allowing the registration of rockenhaus.com to lapse or expire without renewing it; (c) altering, deleting, or destroying the DNS settings, hosting configuration, or website content associated with rockenhaus.com; (d) encumbering the domain in any way; and (e) taking any action that would impair Defendant's ability to recover full ownership and control of rockenhaus.com upon final judgment;
34. Setting a hearing on Defendant's motion for a Preliminary Injunction at the Court's earliest convenience;
35. Upon final judgment, ordering the immediate transfer of all registrar credentials, DNS settings, hosting account credentials, and all associated access and control for rockenhaus.com to Defendant's sole ownership and control;

D. As to All Relief

36. Awarding Defendant costs incurred in bringing this motion; and
37. Granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Conrad A. Rockenhaus
