

STATE OF MICHIGAN
IN THE THIRD JUDICIAL CIRCUIT FOR THE COUNTY OF WAYNE
FAMILY DIVISION

ADRIENNE MARJORIE ROCKENHAUS, Plaintiff,

v.

CONRAD ALAN ROCKENHAUS,
Defendant.

Case No. 26-104594-DO

Hon. Nicole N. Goodson

DEFENDANT'S SUPPLEMENT TO PART THREE OF OMNIBUS MOTION (FILED APRIL 16, 2026): SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION FOR ORDER TO CEASE MISUSE OF AND TRANSFER ADMINISTRATIVE CUSTODY OF ROCKENHAUS.COM PENDING FINAL JUDGMENT

NOW COMES Defendant, Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, appearing pro se, and respectfully supplements Part Three of his Omnibus Motion for Order to Preserve Evidence, Financial Disclosure and Accounting, and Emergency TRO Regarding Premarital Domain rockenhaus.com (filed April 16, 2026), with the additional facts and the additional preliminary-injunction relief requested below, and in support states:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The Court has before it, on the pre-Settlement Conference motion calendar, Defendant's Omnibus Motion for Order to Preserve Evidence, Financial Disclosure and Accounting, and Emergency TRO Regarding Premarital Domain rockenhaus.com, filed April 16, 2026. Part Three of that motion seeks status-quo preservation of rockenhaus.com under Pontiac Fire Fighters Union Local 376 v. City of Pontiac, 482 Mich 1 (2008): no transfer, no lapse, no destruction of the domain pending final judgment.
 2. Defendant supplements Part Three with two additional categories of fact that have crystallized since April 16, 2026 and that warrant additional preliminary-injunction relief beyond pure status-quo preservation. Both additional categories evidence ongoing misuse of Defendant's premarital separate property by Plaintiff during the pendency of this action.
 3. The supplemental relief sought is narrow and structural: (a) cessation of the specific misuse identified herein, and (b) transfer of administrative custody of rockenhaus.com to Defendant during the pendency of this action, with final ownership to be determined at final judgment. Defendant does not seek pre-judgment award of ownership. The supplement asks the Court to stop the ongoing harm and to place the asset under the control of the party whose premarital separate-property interest the Court is being asked to preserve.
 4. The substantive Pontiac Fire Fighters four-factor analysis filed April 16, 2026 in support of Part Three is incorporated by reference. The supplemental facts in Section II below sharpen the irreparable-harm factor and the balance-of-hardships factor without disturbing the existing analysis on likelihood of success or public interest.

II. SUPPLEMENTAL FACTUAL CATEGORIES

A. False-Swearing Misuse: The February 20, 2026 PPO Petition

5. On February 20, 2026, Plaintiff filed an ex parte Petition for Personal Protection Order (Domestic Relationship) in 26-102221-PP. The Petition contained an attached "Relief Requested - Other Relief" page on which Plaintiff swore, under penalty of perjury, the following statement:

"As the owner of a digital software and web business (Cannabytes, LLC), my 'workplace' consists of my digital infrastructure, servers, and domains (including cannabytes.net and rockenhaus.com). The Respondent has recently weaponized my workplace infrastructure to stalk me. ... I am requesting the court explicitly prohibit the Respondent from accessing, interfering with, or utilizing my business domains and prohibit him from contacting any clients or impairing my digital work environment in any way."

6. The sworn assertion that rockenhaus.com is one of Plaintiff's "business domains" or part of her "workplace" is false. The WHOIS record for rockenhaus.com, attached to the April 16, 2026 Omnibus Motion as Exhibit A, conclusively establishes the domain's creation date as September 7, 2001, more than twenty-one (21) years before the parties' marriage on May 20, 2023, and three years before Plaintiff's own LARA filings show the formation of Cannabytes, LLC.
7. Plaintiff used this sworn false statement to obtain ex parte court orders prohibiting Defendant from "accessing" his own premarital separate-property domain, a domain that predates the marriage by more than two decades.
8. The misuse documented at paragraphs 5–7 is not historical. It is an ongoing operative misuse: Plaintiff continues to assert exclusive control over rockenhaus.com on the basis of, and in reliance upon, the same sworn statement she filed on February 20, 2026. The PPO order entered on the basis of that sworn statement remains in force today, more than ten weeks after entry, and continues to reference Plaintiff's "business domains" as the property she is entitled to protect from Defendant's "interference."
9. Plaintiff's continued assertion that rockenhaus.com is hers, directly contradicting the WHOIS record establishing Defendant's twenty-one-year premarital ownership, is itself a form of misuse warranting the structural protection requested below. It is also pattern evidence of bad faith with this Court system that the Court may consider in assessing the balance-of-hardships factor under Pontiac Fire Fighters.

B. Lockout Misuse: The conrad@rockenhaus.com Email Account

10. Defendant has used the email address conrad@rockenhaus.com as his professional email of record continuously from on or about September 2001 through the date of his federal incarceration. The account predates the marriage by approximately twenty-two (22) years.
11. While Defendant was incarcerated at FCI Milan and unable to access his own digital infrastructure, Plaintiff changed the administrative credentials for the rockenhaus.com mail configuration and locked Defendant out of the conrad@rockenhaus.com email account.
12. The lockout was documented contemporaneously in Defendant's affidavit filed in the federal district court at Rockenhaus v. Agapiou, E.D. Mich. Docket No. 388083, Document 30. Defendant has since regained limited functional access to his communications through other means but remains locked out of his own surname-domain professional email account, which Plaintiff continues to administratively control.
13. Each day the lockout continues is a day Defendant is unable to:
 - a. Receive professional correspondence at his longstanding professional email of record, including correspondence from third parties (clients, vendors, federal agencies, financial institutions) who may not have his current alternative addresses;
 - b. Send correspondence from his own surname-domain identity, which carries professional weight that ad-hoc free-email addresses do not;

- c. Maintain the continuity of an email-of-record relationship with creditors, banks, government agencies, and consumer-finance entities that have used the address for years and may flag account changes to alternative addresses as suspicious;
 - d. Recover account-recovery emails, password-reset emails, and identity-verification correspondence routed by third parties to the longstanding email of record by default.
14. The lockout from a longstanding surname-domain professional email is professional-identity deprivation, not mere inconvenience. The harm accumulates daily and cannot be undone by retroactive credential transfer because correspondence sent during the lockout window is, in many cases, irretrievably lost or consumed by the controlling party.

C. Background Facts (Not Operative Predicates)

15. The following additional facts are part of the factual background and are noted here for the Court's contextual reference. They are not operative predicates for the supplemental relief requested. The supplement's substantive showing rests on Sections II.A and II.B above.
- a. The skyphusion.com domain, registered to Defendant's longstanding online identity "SkyPhusion," used by Defendant pre-marriage in technology and information-security contexts, currently redirects to a federal-docket document hosted on rockenhaus.com whose contents post-date and characterize Defendant in inflammatory terms.
 - b. The current homepage of rockenhaus.com is titled "How the Feds Targeted Adrienne Rockenhaus for Speaking Out," a narrative framing that uses the surname-domain to center Plaintiff as protagonist of the federal-case narrative.
 - c. Public WHOIS history for rockenhaus.com reflects a registrar transfer from Cloudflare, Inc. to Namecheap, Inc. occurring while Defendant was incarcerated.
16. Defendant raises the foregoing background facts under MCR 2.116(C) only as context and reserves all rights to address them through other procedural channels at the appropriate time. The Court is not asked to make findings or grant relief on Section II.C.

III. AUTHORITY

17. The four-factor preliminary-injunction analysis under Pontiac Fire Fighters Union Local 376 v. City of Pontiac, 482 Mich 1, 7 (2008), as applied to rockenhaus.com, was set forth in full in Defendant's April 16, 2026 Omnibus Motion at Part Three and is incorporated herein by reference.
18. Likelihood of success on the merits - unchanged. WHOIS creation date of September 7, 2001 establishes premarital separate-property status under MCL 552.401 as a matter of objective fact. The supplemental facts in Section II.A do not change this analysis; they confirm the inverse, that Plaintiff's contrary sworn assertion is unsupported by documentary evidence.
19. Irreparable harm - strengthened. The Section II.B lockout creates ongoing, daily, accumulating harm distinct from the lapse-or-transfer harm addressed in the original Part Three. The cessation of misuse and the transfer of administrative custody requested below address an active, continuing deprivation that money damages cannot redress.
20. Balance of hardships - strengthened. The Section II.A false-swearing materially shifts the balance of hardships. Plaintiff's interest in continued exclusive control of rockenhaus.com is no longer a neutral status-quo interest. It is an interest that rests on, and is sustained by, a sworn statement contradicted by the documentary record. Pontiac Fire Fighters does not require this Court to weigh, in Plaintiff's favor, an interest that exists only by reference to a contradicted oath.
21. Public interest - unchanged. Michigan courts have a strong public interest in protecting premarital separate property from dissipation, misappropriation, or misuse during divorce proceedings. The supplemental facts strengthen that interest by demonstrating that, absent court intervention, the misappropriation continues actively.

22. Discretion to grant affirmative-relief preliminary injunction. Michigan law authorizes preliminary injunctive relief that goes beyond pure status-quo preservation where the underlying facts so warrant. See Niedzialek v. Barbers Union, 331 Mich 296, 300 (1951) (preliminary injunction may be granted where the relief sought is necessary to preserve the rights of the parties pending final disposition); Detroit Fire Fighters Ass'n v. City of Detroit, 482 Mich 18, 34 (2008) (mandatory preliminary injunctions are "rare" but available where the moving party makes a particularly strong showing on the four factors). The combined showing in Section II elevates this matter above pure status-quo preservation.
23. Narrow scope of supplemental relief. Defendant does not seek pre-judgment adjudication of ownership. Defendant seeks only (a) cessation of the specific identified misuse and (b) administrative custody, not ownership, pending final judgment. Final ownership remains for the Court to decide on a complete record at trial or settlement.

IV. RELIEF REQUESTED

WHEREFORE, in addition to the relief already requested in Part Three of Defendant's Omnibus Motion filed April 16, 2026, which Defendant continues to request in full, Defendant respectfully requests that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting the following supplemental relief:

A. Cessation of misuse. Ordering Plaintiff, within seven (7) days of entry of the Order or within such other period as the Court deems appropriate:

1. To cease asserting in any forum, sworn or unsworn, that rockenhaus.com is her business domain, her workplace, or her property, pending final judgment in this action;
2. To remove from rockenhaus.com, or to refrain from publishing on rockenhaus.com, any content asserting that rockenhaus.com is her business domain, her workplace, or her property; and
3. To make no further additions, modifications, or deletions to rockenhaus.com pending final judgment, except as required to maintain the technical operation of the domain consistent with Part Three of the April 16, 2026 Omnibus Motion;

B. Administrative custody pending final judgment. Ordering Plaintiff, within fourteen (14) days of entry of the Order or within such other period as the Court deems appropriate:

1. To deliver to Defendant the registrar account credentials for rockenhaus.com (Namecheap, Inc.) sufficient to enable Defendant to maintain registration, pay renewal fees from his separate VA disability funds, and prevent expiration on September 7, 2026;
2. To deliver to Defendant the administrative credentials for the email infrastructure associated with rockenhaus.com sufficient to restore Defendant's access to his conrad@rockenhaus.com professional email account; and
3. To take no further action that would impair, encumber, transfer, or terminate Defendant's administrative custody of rockenhaus.com pending final judgment;

C. Custody is custody, not ownership. Expressly providing that the administrative custody granted under paragraph B is for the purpose of preserving the asset and stopping the identified misuse pending final judgment, and is not an adjudication of final ownership, which remains for determination on a complete record at trial or settlement;

D. Reservation of rights. Expressly providing that Defendant reserves all rights to address the Section II.C background facts and any other matters not adjudicated by the requested Order through appropriate procedural channels;

E. Preserving in full all relief previously requested in Part Three of the April 16, 2026 Omnibus Motion;

F. Awarding Defendant his costs incurred in bringing this Supplemental Motion; and

G. Granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Conrad A. Rockenhaus

AFFIDAVIT IN SUPPORT OF SUPPLEMENT TO PART THREE OF OMNIBUS MOTION

COUNTY OF WASHTENAW)

I, Conrad Alan Rockenhaus, being duly sworn, depose and state as follows:

1. I am the Defendant in the above-captioned matter. I am over the age of eighteen and competent to testify to the matters set forth herein. The facts stated in this Affidavit are based on my personal knowledge except where stated on information and belief.
2. I registered rockenhaus.com on or about September 7, 2001. The domain has been continuously registered to me since that date, more than twenty-one (21) years before my marriage to Plaintiff on May 20, 2023. The WHOIS record attached as Exhibit A to my April 16, 2026 Omnibus Motion documents the September 7, 2001 creation date.
3. Cannabytes, LLC was formed in approximately 2022. I am familiar with the formation and operating history of Cannabytes, LLC, including from LARA annual statements that I personally signed as Member of the LLC. Cannabytes, LLC did not own rockenhaus.com at any point in its existence and does not own rockenhaus.com now. rockenhaus.com is my pre-marital separate property.
4. I have used the email address conrad@rockenhaus.com as my professional email of record continuously from on or about September 2001 through approximately September 2025, when I was taken into federal custody. The address has been used by me to correspond with clients, vendors, federal agencies, banks, credit-card issuers, and other entities for whom the address remains the email of record on file.
5. While I was incarcerated at FCI Milan and unable to administer my own digital infrastructure, Plaintiff changed the administrative credentials for the rockenhaus.com mail infrastructure and locked me out of my conrad@rockenhaus.com email account. I do not have administrative access to that account today.
6. I have testified to the lockout previously in my affidavit filed at Rockenhaus v. Agapiou, E.D. Mich. Docket No. 388083, Document 30. The factual content of that prior affidavit, regarding the lockout, is true and correct and is repeated here.
7. I have read the February 20, 2026 ex parte Petition for Personal Protection Order filed by Plaintiff in 26-102221-PP, including the attached "Relief Requested - Other Relief" page. The Petition is signed by Plaintiff under penalty of perjury.
8. The Petition's assertion that rockenhaus.com is one of Plaintiff's "business domains" or part of her "workplace" is false. The WHOIS record establishes my pre-marital ownership as a matter of objective public record. I did not transfer ownership of rockenhaus.com to Plaintiff at any point during the marriage. I did not transfer ownership to Cannabytes, LLC at any point during the marriage. My pre-marital separate-property interest in the domain has been continuous from September 7, 2001 to the present.

9. Plaintiff continues, today, to assert administrative control over rockenhaus.com on the basis of the false sworn statement in the February 20, 2026 PPO Petition. The PPO order entered on the basis of that statement remains in effect.
10. The cessation of misuse and the transfer of administrative custody requested in the supplemental motion will allow me to (a) prevent the September 7, 2026 expiration of the domain by paying renewal fees from my separate VA disability funds, (b) restore my access to my longstanding professional email of record, and (c) stop the ongoing daily harm to my professional identity. The supplemental motion does not ask the Court to award the domain to me as a final-judgment matter; it asks the Court to place administrative custody of the asset with the party whose pre-marital separate-property interest the Court is being asked to preserve.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Dated: May 5, 2026

Conrad Alan Rockenhaus
